500 vets in area cash bonus checks at local banks

Six months after the opening of the Illinois Service Recognition Board offices in Chicago and Springfield to receive applications for the state bonus, checks are now being sent out at the rate of 7,500 weekly. And efforts are being made to extend the weekly goal to 10,000 reasonably soon. Admiral John Downes, director of the board, asserted last week.

With 1400 checks sent out last Wednesday, a total of 65,320 checks have been mailed thus far to Illinois veterans, many of them now living as civilians or as members of the armed forces in other states and foreign countries. The total evaluation of the claims paid to date is $28,003,800.72 or $425 average per claim.

Mt. Prospect State Bank has cashed 65 checks to date, most of them for residents of Mt. Prospect. After vigorous activity the first three days of September, the number being cashed has dropped to just a few a week at present.

INTERESTING information is given in figures received from Wheeling State Bank. Their first check was received Friday morning of last week, cashed by a man who mailed his application just one hour after they arrived at Arlington Heights VA office last April. The Wheeling bank has cashed just one check to date, though at least one other Wheeling man has received a check.

Palatine National Bank has cashed 110 bonus checks to date, with the first four days bringing the most servicemen to the bank. Present rate of reimbursement is 10 a week.

Roselle State Bank reports 49 checks to date, with 30 appearing the first day. Their checks are averaging just over $200.

Itasca State Bank has received 114 bonus checks to date, with 35 coming in the first day.

Arlington Heights National Bank reports 166 checks received to date, with about a dozen a week appearing at the cashier's windows.

A FURTHER breakdown of statistics to date reveals that almost three-quarters of a million dollars in bonuses is being sent out daily.

While the individual claims have presently been running over the estimated overall average of $410 for living veterans, numbered claims indicate that the estimated average will eventually prevail, thereby not effecting the $385,000,000 legislated or bonus payments.

In announcing the figures, Admiral Downes pointed out that they are statewide, with production equally divided between Springfield and Cook county. The operations of both have been parallel, he said, and veterans should not misconstrue the totals as being only the efforts of the Springfield or the Cook county office.

SOME 780,000 applications have been received, with the number being increased by about 800 each day, the Admiral said. The deadline for filing is midnight of June 30, 1949.

Monthly R. R. tickets may jump $2.00

Monthly commuters who use the Northwestern to reach their places of employment in Chicago will be required to pay $2.00 additional for their 54-day monthly tickets if the Illinois Commerce Commission grants the petitions filed by the Northwestern and other railroads seeking a 25% increase in suburban fares.

Arlington Heights commuters would have to pay $11.65 against the present $9.70; Mt. Prospect $11, against $9.15. Increase for Palatine residents is higher, $13.05 in place of $10.85.

Increase on 10-day tickets are between 10 and 20 cents. I. A. Wood, assistant auditor of the C. & N. W. said the road is losing $5,800 a day on its suburban service.

Direct testimony of nine railroads seeking fare increase was completed Tuesday afternoon. The cross examination will begin October 14. The villages of Mt. Prospect and Des Plaines have joined other towns in filing appearances with the commission as being opposed to the raise.

Mount Prospect loses radio sign suit in high court

Illinois Supreme Court upheld last week the contention of the Federal Electric Sign Co. for the Zenith Corporation that the erection of the signs on the radio towers and their operation was not against the zoning laws of the village of Mt. Prospect. The court upheld the previous decision of the circuit court.

THE BASIS of the village appeal was that the sign erection was an expanding use of a non-conforming structure. The radio towers were constructed in 1925, which were operated as station WJAZ until 1931.

Zenith claimed that it used the property continually for research work since that time and that the rezoning of the area to family residence in 1946 did not deprive their use of their property for that purpose.

THE VILLAGE admitted that zoning extensions or major structural changes, Zenith could continue to use its property, but claimed that the erection of the signs was an expansion of the station and were in direct violation of the amended zoning ordinance.

The village of Mt. Prospect will ask for a rehearing.

Judge Quilici has secured an extension of time to file briefs in the Illinois Supreme court in his appeal from the Mt. Prospect Zoning Commission which has denied use of property owned by him for business purposes.

Judge Neuman orders $200 and cost for drunkenness

When Judge Neuman announced that it costs a fine of $25 and costs to get drunk in Arlington Heights, he gave the promise not to raise the ante. He did so Wednesday morning when he made it $200 and costs. Half the fine was remitted for six months. If the culprit is taken into custody a second time for the same offense, he must pay the additional $100.

A 16-year-old boy, arrested for reckless driving, will bring his parents to court with him Monday night when the judge hears the reasons why parents allow their son to "do such things."

Mistaken identity

When A. J. Lagod who is building a new home on Rockwell street left a blue-green truck in front of his home the other night, he did not know that there was a "stop order" out for a truck of that color. A similar truck was recently used in the theft of 1500 bricks from a new home.

Officer Melbourne discovered the truck. With Officer Johnson, the officers took the truck to the police station. When Lagod came to the police to report the car disappearance, he found the truck in police custody. Melbourne still thinks that it is better to play safe than to be sorry.

of this paper to pick the winner. The two young ladies who have tied for first place are Miss Juanita Shelkop and Miss Phoebe Ann Ellis.

MISS SHELKOP graduated from Arlington Heights high school in 1945. While on the staff of the Cardinal she contributed "Kelly's Column," continuing that feature in this paper after her graduation. She is now employed in the executive offices of Butler Bros.

MISS ELLIS is a junior at Arlington Heights high school.

JUANITA SHELKOP

She is active in school affairs and was vice president of her class last year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ellis, Burton Place.

The Camera Club is publishing a voting blank on this page, asking that the readers check their favorite and mail the coupon to Arlington Heights Camera Club before midnight, September 27.

Heights stores adopt Thursday evening as regular shopping night

Arlington Heights stores and business places have decided on Thursday evening as the regular weekly shopping night to go into effect October 2. The decision was reached at a special meeting of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce Monday when it was reported 25 business places had agreed on Thursday evening as the most convenient shopping night for Arlington Heights people.

Further details and an announcement of all business places and store hours will appear in next week's issue of this newspaper.

This week to climax girl scout finance drive

Arlington Heights girl scout finance drive will receive new impetus this week with the canvassing of every household in the community by a volunteer solicitor, according to Albert Kehe, finance chairman. The local council hopes that every family in the community will contribute at least two dollars to this fund.

The council has an annual budget of some $2,000, which is dependent upon the support given to the financial drive by members of the community. The expense of administration, troop organization, day camps, troop camping, training and equipment make up a part of this budget. All of the money collected is kept within the community to carry on these activities. In addition, the local council, with some 300 girl scouts and Brownie girl scouts already enrolled, find themselves faced with the need for at least part-time professional leadership.

The word has also come that official confirmation has been received for the Arlington Heights Council, along with five other councils in this area, to occupy the former Des Plaines C. C. Camp at Dam No. 2, after November 1, 1947. This five-year grant represents an excellent opportunity for the development of general camping activities for the girls of this community. Although this program will entail some expense for remodeling and maintenance, the local council, according to Mrs. Helen Meyer, president, feels that by this means it can provide camping activities which otherwise could not be offered without a major camp fund campaign.

Pupils of the Arlington Hgts. South school had vacations Tuesday and Wednesday because the contractor had not completed heating installation as he had promised. A new promise given Wednesday morning was that the new plant would be in operation before Thursday morning.

The new heating unit, a part of the building addition contract, includes two oil burning boilers. The heating plant will be so arranged that the gymnasium and cafeteria can be heated for evening use separate from the school proper.

Special offer of 100 lots announced by Randhill Park

Residents of Arlington Heights, Palatine, Mt. Prospect and adjacent suburbs will be enabled to participate in a special limited offer of 100 choice lots in beautiful Randhill Park Cemetery located at Rand and Wilke rds., Arlington Heights, according to an announcement made by Samuel R. Wittelle, owner.

"For this special offering a limited number of lots will be made available at especially attractive prices and on very easy terms with small down payment, balance $10 monthly, without any interest or carrying charges."

"INCLUDED are 4-grave and 6-grave plots located in the choicest sections of the Park Cemetery. All lots receive perpetual care. First choice will go to those who apply first. Full particulars are available to those who phone or write."

In referring to the offer, Mr. Wittelle said, "Randhill Park Cemetery has been a part of the northwestern suburban community for nearly a quarter of a century. It has grown up with this community. Naturally we feel that when and as we are in a position to make a special offer, those families who reside in this area should be given first choice."

"THIS SPECIAL offering includes 100 of our choicest lots in fully developed sections. Lawns, trees, shrubs, paved roads and all other improvements are all in. Full perpetual care is included with each title, without extra cost. The titles are fully guaranteed by the Chicago Title and Trust Co.

"Randhill Park Cemetery operates under charter of the state of Illinois. It is non-sectarian. (Continued on Page Eight)

What is fate of two high school athletic leagues?

With three schools seceding from the Northeast conference, fate of both that league and the Northwest are in doubt. Read G. A. McElroy's account and observations of the new Lake county league on the sport page of this week's Paddock Publications. Mac says appears each week, giving inside dope on athletic progress of both conferences.

Charges county with renewal of car towing racket

"Republicans are no different than the Democrats when it comes to the towing racket," says Andrew Geisen, Des Plaines, who, with Andrew, Jr. and Edward Paul Geisen, were arrested Tuesday when they sought to obtain possession of a large truck which had overturned in an accident at the intersection of Routes 62 and 53, Palatine township.

"The average wrecker is not able to handle large trucks," say the Geisens who have a wrecker used for such purposes by the army. They claim that the truck owner, Mr. Neilsen, had phoned them, requesting that they take charge.

SHORTLY AFTER the Geisens had taken the truck to the Neilsen's garage, police officers arrested Andrew and his son. They returned later to arrest Edward Geisen, who refused to accompany the officers without a warrant. Leaving an officer at the garage, the squad car returned to the station, secured a complaint and on the basis of such complaint took Edward into custody.

In the verbal battle at the garage Geisen states the officers made threats with a gun. All three Geisens were released under $200 bonds. Charges are resisting an officer and assault.

"THE CONDITION is evidently the same as it was in May, 1933," says Geisen, "when I was told by a police officer that the Geisen Garage is not treating the boys right because it does not split towing charges." The Geisens still do not split towing charges.

Paddock Publications, when it made an inquiry over the phone to the Morton Grove station as to the charges that had been made by the officers against the Geisens, was told that the reporter should see the judge at the afternoon's hearing. As the reporter knew that the case was going to be postponed, he did not attend the hearing.

Arlington South school closed by cold; heat is promised by Thursday

Pupils of the Arlington Hgts. South school had vacations Tuesday and Wednesday because the contractor had not completed heating installation as he had promised. A new promise given Wednesday morning was that the new plant would be in operation before Thursday morning.

The new heating unit, a part of the building addition contract, includes two oil burning boilers. The heating plant will be so arranged that the gymnasium and cafeteria can be heated for evening use separate from the school proper.

'Homecoming' week at Arlington October 6 to 12

A new spirit at Arlington high

(AN EDITORIAL)

There is a new spirit this year at Arlington High School. It is being demonstrated in a number of ways. Freshmen, entering the school for the first time, discovered that upper classmen were ready to give them a helping hand and had no designs on their body, clothes or belongings. Entrance week hazing was missing.

If the student body accepts the recommendation of the student orientation committee for Homecoming Week October 6-12, the school will not get the unsavory publicity that was given it last year in the Chicago press. No freshman will be embarrassed and there will be a spirit of comradeship between all students of the high school, which in turn will mean more games won on the athletic field, greater progress in the classroom, better social contacts and a happy school family because there are no class distinctions.

School traditions are not losing anything by the orientation program that was adopted this year. The bonfire and the parade that were so disastrous two years ago and almost led to an insurrection last year, will both be held this season. To these will be added other homecoming week features that will provide plenty of interest and opportunity to work off "the usual steam" of homecoming week.

The old hell-raising stunts of homecoming week at Arlington High have gone the way of the old-time wedding charivari and the bullying tactics of upper classmen toward freshmen in the schools of yesterday.

It is evident that the boys and girls of our high schools are growing up. They recognize that welfare of society comes before personal freedom of the individual. A similar attitude on the part of the parents will be a great help in making this year's homecoming week a success. The morale of the home is reflected in the morale of the student body.

Instrumental music program emphasized in public schools

With the organization of an instrumental group in both the North and South schools at Arlington Heights this year, the instrumental program in the public schools is receiving a new interest this year. Harold Brunt, music instructor, reports that indications are there will be a considerable number of new pupils interested in taking up instrumental instruction this year.

A letter is being sent to all parents of pupils in grades four through eight this week outlining the procedure for the use of school-owned instruments and urging parents of pupils who are interested to talk with Mr. Brunt. Arrangements are under way to arrange for a display of instruments by the Lyceum Band Instrument Company to be held in one of the schools during the early fall. This event was quite well attended last year and resulted in a number of parents purchasing new instruments. The plan provides for a rental period, at the end of which the instrument can be purchased or can be returned without any further obligation.

Mr. Brunt reports that the classroom vocal music is off to a good start and that primary teachers, who handle their own classes, are interested and enthusiastic about a good vocal problem. Middle and upper grade children are already being organized into glee clubs, in addition to their classroom instruction.

Rummage and clothing resale this Saturday

A clothing resale and rummage sale will be held September 27 in the Lutheran school basement. It is being sponsored by the Dorcas Aid of the Arlington Heights St. Peter church. Doors will open at 9 a. m.

Evening classes make high school plant available to adults at Arlington

PRELIMINARY registration in driver training has almost filled that course.

Also included are such hobby courses as photography, music appreciation, art and nature study. The mother who cannot understand why her child does or does not do certain things has the opportunity to better understand the young life placed in her charge by an evening course in child psychology.

Those who are hesitant about going on a ballroom floor can take ballroom dancing.

SEVERAL REQUESTS have been received by the high school office for classes to be formed in millinery and electricity for the adult education program. Classes will be formed for both subjects providing a teacher can be found and an enrollment of twelve in each class is reached.

A course in "family relations" is also available if there are sufficient number to sign up for the course.

MR. KNOEPEL, principal, who has had a lot of experience in adult classes in other communities, has outlined courses that are sufficiently varied to allow every boy, girl, man or woman interested to choose his own.

Adult evening classes have grown to such an extent at Maine Township high school that an enrollment of 1,000 is

Mobile X-ray unit at high school September 29

The mobile X-ray unit of the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute will be at Arlington Heights high school Monday, September 29. The main purpose of the visit is to X-ray teachers of all schools, and reactors of previous examinations. The hours are 9:15 to 11:15; 12:15 to 3:00 o'clock.

The service is also available without any charge to any individual. It is a service that the C. T. I. gives to Arlington Heights as part of its health program to the community. Sales of Christmas seals help to make this service possible.

Mrs. Paul Carroll, health nurse will be glad to give any information regarding the mobile visit here. Her phone number is 530.

Second car received at Arlington high for driving training course

Arrangements were completed this week with George C. Poole, Inc., in cooperation with the Chicago Motor Club and the A. A. A. to secure a Ford DeLuxe Tudor to be equipped with dual controls and used in the Driver Training course at the Arlington Heights high school. The Ford Motor Company is cooperating with the schools and automobile clubs throughout America in securing cars for high school instruction.

The dealer furnishes the car, the Chicago Motor Club furnishes the dual controls, and the school bears the cost of operation. This will make two cars available to the class of fifty who are now enrolled in this course at the high school.

Kryl Symphony orchestra to play at Arlington, Oct. 8

The concert engagement of the Kryl Symphony Orchestra, America's only touring concert organization which will be heard Wednesday, October 8, at Arlington Heights high school, most certainly be ranked among the most important musical events of the year.

This organization of artists and fine musicians, assembled from orchestras and music schools of the nation, has been attracting extraordinary attention wherever it has appeared.

Bohumir Kryl, colorful and artistic conductor of this outstanding Symphony Orchestra is acclaimed for his interpretations, variety of program and as a true artist. It has been said that he is one of the present day giants in the field of music who is endeavoring to assist and further the cultural and social development of the American people for good music.

The program is sponsored by the senior class of Arlington high school.

Public Notice

Notice of Proposed Change in Schedules E-2, E-2-M and E-2-O.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS hereby gives notice to the public that it has filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission on September 15, 1947, the following proposed revision in its electric rate schedules.

1. The filing of new Rate 12, Industrial Electric Service—Annual Demand, which will be attractive to some large industrial customers having a fairly constant monthly demand.

2. The revision of Rider 3, Allowance for Customer-Owned Transformers, and Rider 9, High-Tension Metering, to extend their applicability to Rate 12.

3. The revision of industrial Rates 11, 13, 77 and 81, principally to incorporate a more liberal term of contract and new provisions for adjustment of demand.

4. The revision of Rate 79, Large Power and Light Service—Annual Demand (the annual demand portion of former Rate 41), principally to limit its availability to customers now served thereunder.

5. The revision of Rate 82, Ice Making Service, and Rider 19, Air Conditioning Electric Service, to limit their availability to present customers served thereunder.

6. The revision of Rate 105, Municipal Pumping, and Street Lighting Service, to include a new adjustment of demand provision.

7. The filing of Rider 22, Adjustment of Demands, to make the adjustment of demand provisions of the above named industrial rates available to governmental electric service customers.

A copy of the proposed change in the schedules may be inspected by any interested party at any business office of this Company.

All parties interested in this matter may obtain information with respect thereto either directly from this Company or by addressing the Secretary of the Illinois Commerce Commission at Springfield, Illinois.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Sept. 21, was:

"MATTER"
The Golden Text was:

"Little children, keep yourselves from idols" (1 John 5: 21).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible:

"Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal; But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" (Matt. 6: 19-21).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Things spiritual and eternal are substantial. Things material and temporal are insubstantial. . . . We cannot fathom the nature and quality of God's creation by diving into the shallows of mortal belief. We must reverse our feeble flutterings—our efforts to find life and truth in matter—and rise above the testimony of the material senses, above the mortal to the immortal idea of God. . . . Starting from a higher standpoint, one rises spontaneously, even as light emits light without effort; for 'where your treasure is, there will your heart be also' (pp. 335, 262).

Replace FRAYED Cords NOW!

Puppies aren't the only ones who can harm themselves with worn-out electric cords. The entire family, from infants to adults, are endangered by worn-out wiring.

Exposed wires are often the cause of blown fuses, wasted electricity and short circuits. Check your home for this common hazard and eliminate it.

Safe, adequate wiring is again possible after wartime shortages.

You no longer have to "get by" with makeshift, inferior wiring—replace every frayed cord with a new one today. Educate each member of the family in this elementary safety rule—never yank an electric cord—handle only the plug when disconnecting from a wall socket.

Mothers Club to have smorgasbord dinner

The Mothers Club of St. Peter Lutheran school, Arlington Heights, will sponsor a smorgasbord dinner next Friday, September 26, in the dining hall of St. Peter Lutheran school. Serving will begin at 5 p. m. and continue for approximately 2½ hours.

Tickets will sell at the reasonable price of 85c for adults and 50c for children. The effort will help the cause of Christian education in St. Peter school. Members and friends are cordially invited to come.

Mrs. Claire Decker is visiting the Russell Eggos in Plymouth, Ind.

At Earl Carrolls

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Taylor, who are vacationing in California, recently attended the hit revue at the famous Earl Carroll Theatre-Restaurant in Hollywood. At a nearby table the Taylors happened to see Mrs. H. G. Day and daughter, Pat, of Arlington Heights, who were also enjoying the show.

Alan Reinshagen, who is the husband of the former Katharine Hines of Arlington Heights, was taken to the hospital in Champaign Friday night for treatment. His condition is improved and he and his wife will be home for a short time in a week or so.

Two babies baptized Sunday at St. Peter

At the regular Sunday morning services Rev. L. V. Stephan of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, baptized the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Moehling, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Helfogt.

Lyle Harold Moehling was sponsored by Herman Moehling, Harold Moehling William Bohning and Mrs. Martin Albrecht Jr. His parents entertained 18 relatives at dinner in honor of the occasion.

The Helfogts' daughter was christened Patricia Ann. Florence Jannusch and Gladys and Kenneth Kleiner acted as sponsors for the little girl. A family dinner party was held at the Helfogt home to celebrate the event.

St. Peter Couples' Club to meet tonight

The Couples Club of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will meet for their regular monthly meeting tonight, September 25, at 8 p. m. Organized last spring, this growing club already numbers about 35 couples in its membership.

"School Days" will feature the theme of the entertainment tonight. Members are asked to bring individual pictures of themselves taken during their school days.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Harris have returned from a trip around Lake Michigan. They visited the Herbert Chidleys at Mercer, Mich., while on their trip.

Guests the past fortnight at the home of Mrs. H. M. Blume were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hixon of Morgan, Minn. Mrs. Hixon is also the sister of W. B. Hansen and the group enjoyed a round of family parties while the visitors were here.

Mrs. George Syoen recently attended a pre-nuptial shower given in honor of Miss Paula Syoen of Chicago. Miss Syoen will be married October 11.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Walton of Saginaw, Mich., spent the week end at the William Walton home visiting their new granddaughter.

Miss Ann Volz has returned to college after a vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Carncross and son Tommy, of Rockford, spent the week end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Carncross.

Gordon Carncross will spend next week at home. He will be enjoying a short vacation from his studies at the University of Illinois in Champaign.

Stork Shower

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Panzer of Chicago, formerly of Arlington Heights, entertained members of Mrs. Panzer's former pinocle club and their husbands Saturday evening. The party was also a stork shower in honor of Mrs. Clarence Horcher. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collignon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moritz, Mr. and Mrs. Art Weinrich, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Horcher, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Al Bahr.

In the Naval hospital at Bremerton, Wash., is Raymond Voelker, who will undergo a nasal operation. He will be in the hospital about two weeks.

Mary Lou Richards is now in Washington, D. C., visiting her uncle and aunt, Lt. Col. and Mrs. J. S. Richards.

Guy Baxter was able to spend the week end at home with his family. He is on an extended business trip for his company and left again Monday to continue his work.

Mae Freeman, Edward Troyke tie nuptial knot

Miss Mae Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Freeman of Palatine became the bride Saturday of Mr. Edward Troyke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Troyke of Roselle. The couple were united in marriage by Rev. Glenn G. Gumm at the St. Paul Lutheran church in a single ring ceremony. Baskets of white gladioli were setting on both sides of the altar and candelabra held long tapering candles that lent a soft glow to the service. Miss Ardis Wentz of Barrington sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ by Mr. L. Berg.

A white satin gown, styled with fitted bodice, having net yoke and wide ruffle of lace giving a drop shoulder effect, and full skirt ending in a long train was worn by the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of orange blossoms. She carried

Sues Evanger Kennels, Wheeling, for $10,000

Charging she was run over by Great Danes and seriously injured, Mrs. Hazel Wollett, 4732 Washington street, Skokie, filed suit for $10,000 damages Tuesday in superior court.

Named defendant in the suit was F. W. Evanger, operator of Evanger Great Dane Kennels, on Wheeling road, Wheeling.

According to the suit, Mrs. Wollett, and her husband, Oliver, visited the kennels July 4 intending to purchase a dog. Evanger insisted that she see his Great Dane champions which were in his kennels. Upon being released, the dogs jumped on Mrs. Wollett, knocked her down and trampled over her.

The suit charges that Evanger should have known that dogs kept in a kennel for a period of time will jump when released and should have taken precautions to prevent injury.

Mrs. Wollett's attorney, Frank Fiorite, said that the Danes were not kept on a leash and no other precautions were taken.

Journal of a Bird Watcher

F. J. FREEMAN

Oct. 1st (1946)—In order to be able to visualize some of the warblers which have different color phases in the fall, I made some pastel sketches from the printed description. Today I was pleased to be able to identify the myrtle warblers from my sketch. In the spring the male myrtle is blue-grey, black and white and yellow; in the fall he is a sparrow brown with reduced areas of yellow.

Oct. 2nd—Saw a pipit today. Have never identified this species before.

Oct. 3rd—The juncos are back, also the yellow-bellied sapsucker who looks pretty drab without his yellow, and numerous myrtle warblers, hermit thrushes, towhees and a Philadelphia vireo.

Oct. 4th—Counted only fifteen egrets at Barrington but lots more ducks.

Oct. 5th—Saw the chestnut-sided warbler and fox sparrows today.

Oct. 7th—Johnny identified the tufted titmouse in the woods back of the house. We have not seen that kind of bird since it spent the winter with us in Itasca seventeen years ago. The weather this month, so far, has been in the eighties, clear, dry, beautiful!

Oct. 11th—Four red-breasted nuthatches foraged through the pine trees outside our windows today.

Oct. 13-19th—Birds, birds everywhere: warblers, thrushes, wrens, sparrows, ducks, shorebirds. Weather has turned drizzly and raw. Saw pintails at the Barrington slough, and dowitchers wading and feeding in the water with the other shore birds.

Oct. 20th—Drove to Channel Lake this Sunday—lovely day. Saw swamp hawks and a flock of six hawks—red-tails and red-shouldered mixed. Saw a blue heron flying high and northward and much higher a wedge of geese going south. Believe some were snow geese as they flashed white against the blue sky.

I read in a recent issue of the "Nature Magazine" about "squeaking" birds and animals. This is done by placing the side of the finger against the lips and making chirping sounds and various squeaks by drawing in air and kissing the finger. This is supposed to attract birds and predatory animals, and it does. By chance I saw a good sized mink enter the lower pond at the Deer Grove Forest Preserve. It seemed to be hunting as it dove under for a while and would then come up for breath and dive again. I sat still near the edge of the water and squeaked at him. Although I was in full sight, he came toward me and onto the shore about thirty feet from me. After shaking himself several times and looking around, he ran into the willows about twenty feet from me and disappeared carrying a small fish. I have also had some success in squeaking birds. Cardinals will come from a distance, and many of the smaller birds such as juncos, sparrows, kinglets, small flycatchers and warblers will stop their flitting around and sit still and seem to listen.

Oct. 26th—Peter saw the purple finch in the woods near the house this fall as he did this spring. I have yet to see it.

Oct. 27th—This Sunday at sunset my wife and I went back to the marsh at the Elk Grove Preserve. The dried rushes were full of juncos, white-throated sparrows and at least one blue bird, all settling down for the night. We also heard the fall singing of the song sparrow. To hear song sparrows in the spring is a common thing, but at dusk in the autumn from the depths of a thicket, the song is sweet and ethereal, something precious because it may be the last before the long cold sets in.

Oct. 29th—It has been exceptionally mild these past days with the temperature in the seventies, and last night a warm rain fell. Went out with Peter and Chris Kent and picked our first and probably last harvest of mushrooms: agaricus, shaggymane and ink-caps. We had creamed mushrooms on scrambled eggs for lunch and steak and mushrooms for supper, and what was left of the large basketful, my wife canned. Whoever said it was right: "The best things in life are free!"

Bigger Farms
The average size of U. S. farms today is 200 acres. This means a 50-acre increase since 1920. The number of farms has decreased over 10 per cent in two decades.

New cop gets 30 scalps in 3 days at Park Ridge

Arrests of 30 people within three days for exceeding the speed limit were made by the local police department, it was reported by Alderman Elton A. Herrick, Jr., chairman of the Police License and Fire committee, at Tuesday night's council meeting.

A new motorcycle policeman, who went on duty for the first time last Friday, made possible the closer observation of arterial right of ways, he said.

Vulnerable spots for speeders and where most arrests were made were in Belleplaine ave., Courtland, Greenwood, Touhy, Cumberland, Talcott, Devon and Prospect.

"In the past four days speed has been reduced substantially within the city," said H. W. Johnson, chief of police.

A new policy has also been instituted, he said, in that beginning Friday all offenders must appear in court personally to pay their fines. Fines cannot be paid at the police station.

"We also want to make it clear," he said, "that all money received from fines is paid directly to the treasurer's office of the city, not to the judge, who is paid by salary."

Cub scout session this Saturday

Cub Scout leaders and other interested parents will gather at the Congregational church in Des Plaines on September 27 for a huge Cubbing Training course. "Wel-E-Ka-How" is the name given to this affair which is planned by the Training Committee of the Northwest Suburban Council under the leadership of Mr. A. W. Whitton, Skokie.

Cub Scout leaders will be able to learn the techniques of Cubbing by participating in one of the four informal sections dealing with Cub games; Cub handicraft, ceremonies, dramatics, skits, and story telling; and Den and Pack program.

The Wel-E-Ka-How is an afternoon and evening affair and will include a Blue and Gold banquet in addition to the activities in the various sections. Parents interested in providing their sons with a real experience in Cub Scouting are urged to contact the Cubmaster of the Cub Scout Pack in their local community or Boy Scout headquarters in Park Ridge. The Wel-E-Ka-How is open to all interested parents in the Northwest Suburban Council.

Nurse graduates

Fifteen senior cadet and affiliate student nurses will receive graduation certificates from the University of Illinois at 11:30 a. m. Thursday, September 25, following successful completion of a course in orthopaedic nursing, including Dorothy Greinke of Mt. Prospect.

Dr. A. C. Ivy, vice president of the University in charge of the Chicago Professional Colleges will deliver the graduation address. Certificates will be presented to the graduates by Dr. Fremont A. Chandler, head of the department of orthopaedic surgery.

Nurses enrolled in the course have received specialized training in the treatment of deformities and other injuries of the bones, joints, muscles and nerves. They attended classes at the orthopaedic surgical institute of the University of Illinois, Research and Educational hospitals, located in the Chicago Medical Center District.

Auditions for amateur pianists

The Chicago piano symphony orchestras announce auditions for talented amateur pianists to participate in the Piano Orchestras' Sixth Concert Season, conducted by founder, Antoinette Rich. The unique piano orchestras now occupy the Penthouse on the roof top of the Fine Arts building, Studios-1100 at 410 S. Michigan avenue. Auditions began Wednesday, September 24 through October 31.

Pianists with classical background and who are adept in music sight-reading are especially invited to audition. Several pianists will be selected for the Personnel of Three Piano Ensembles. The Chicago "Youth" piano symphony is created for boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 18. The Chicago "All Girls" Piano Symphony; for girls between the ages of 18 and 30. The Chicago "Grand Ladies" Piano Symphony for women between the ages of 35 and 55.

Following several months of rehearsals, the Piano Orchestras will be presented in Concert in Community Auditoriums and in a Spring Concert conducted annually each May in Orchestra Hall.

June Evelyn Goodale to wed John B. Ashton

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Goodale of West Boylston, Mass., have announced the engagement of their daughter, June Evelyn, to John B. Ashton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Ashton of Arlington Heights. Miss Goodale is a graduate of North Park college, at which her fiancé studied. She attended the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and is associated with the Oceanographic Institute at Woods Hole, Mass.

Bells ring for Helen Seitz and Carl Anstett

Wedding bells rang out September 6 for Helen Rose Seitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Seitz of Arlington Heights, and Carl Jack Anstett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Anstett of Chicago. The nuptial vows were repeated after Rev. Mark Verschure, who officiated at the double ring ceremony. The wedding was held at 10:30 a. m. at St. Vincent Ferrer church in River Forest, which was decorated with palms and bouquets of white gladioli. A friend of the bride's sang "Ave Maria," and other appropriate music was played by the church organist.

Miss Seitz was gownned in a white swiss-embroidered eyelet dress that was trimmed in satin. The dress was fashioned with an off the shoulder effect bodice and full skirt and train, the skirt having a long ruffled apron effect. She wore long white eyelet gloves to match and carried a bouquet of Amazon lilies and Stephanotis. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a crown of matching eyelet.

The bride was attended by Dorothy L. Seitz of Regina, Canada, as maid of honor. She was dressed in a colonial gown of white eyelet over a bright pink slip, and carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli. Ellen Wezerich, Mary Ann Krause, friends of the bride, and Betty and William Anstett, sisters of the groom, served as bridesmaids. They also wore white eyelet gowns, two over blue slips and two over yellow slips, and carried deep pink gladioli. All of the bride's attendants had crowns of matching white eyelet.

Best man for the groom was his brother, Edgar P. Anstett, and acting as ushers were Carl A. Anstett, Eric Marhoefer and Arthur and Eric Seitz.

Carol Vilchis and Betty Ann Simons were flower girls. They were attired in white eyelet over

Taft to speak at New Trier Oct. 9

Senator Robert A. Taft, generally considered a likely candidate for Republican nomination for President next year, will speak in New Trier High School gymnasium Thursday evening, October 9, at 8:30 o'clock. This will be Senator Taft's only public appearance in the Chicago area during his current swing to the West Coast, in which he has delivered major political speeches and tested public opinion.

Senator Taft's talk at New Trier is expected to attract several thousand voters in the North Shore and surrounding areas. The doors at New Trier High School gymnasium (Winnetka ave., east of Indian Hill Station) will be open at 7:15 Thursday evening, October 9, to accommodate the crowds.

The Fine Arts Singers will open club season

The new club year of the Arlington Heights Woman's Club will open at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, October 1, at the Arlington Heights Field House with Mrs. Carl Ewert presiding.

The Fine Arts Singers, Miss Carlotta Vannes, Soprano, Mr. Leonard Balsamo Tenor, Mr. Howard Berhalter, Baritone and Mr. Sidney Stafford, Pianist, will present the program for the afternoon. The Fine Arts Singers present the finest in vocal literature, as each soloist is an outstanding artist and will be featured during the program which is designed to please the most discriminating audience. They will feature the Famous Four Indian Love Lyrics by Amy Woodforde Finden, a lovely cycle of songs rarely heard these days.

Mrs. Wm. Franke, membership chairman, will welcome the twenty-five new members and present them to the club. Following the program there will be a reception and tea for the new members.

District Walther league session at Palmer House

The Palmer House in Chicago will be host to the Northern Illinois District of the Lutheran Walther League when it convenes for its 23rd annual convention on Saturday and Sunday, October 4 and 5.

William Wickboldt, 1909 N. Hamlin ave., states that over 1200 young people of the Lutheran church, Missouri Synod, members of 225 local church societies, are expected to attend the convention.

REGISTRATION will be open at 12 noon on Saturday with the opening general assembly scheduled for 2:00 p. m. when Milton Egerding, 817 Circle ave., Forest Park, will preside. A series of program sessions will be held each afternoon, on Saturday the discussions centering on "Realizing the League Aims through Recreation," "Through Athletics," and "Through Community Singing;" the Sunday sessions will concern themselves with "The New Manual, Its Aims," "Proportionate Giving, Its Possibilities," and "Mission Activity, Its Pleasures." Society presidents, secretaries, and treasurers will have separate sessions on Sunday morning.

At the business sessions each afternoon many new resolutions adopted at the International convention held in Buffalo during July will be brought to the attention of the Leaguers of this district and will be adapted to the local conditions. Elections of District officers for the ensuing year will also be conducted during the convention, the ballots being cast by society delegates.

THE SOCIAL high-light will be the banquet on Saturday evening in the grand ballroom. Prof. R. R. Caemmerer of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, will be the guest speaker, using as his theme the convention motto "Go and Tell."

Sunday evening a special entertainment will be presented in the Red Lacquer room of the Palmer House. Harold Wukash, 6134 W. Patterson, a teacher at Messiah church in Chicago, will be the master of ceremonies, brought back by popular demand after his outstanding program last year. The installation of the newly elected district officers will conclude the convention.

Joycelyn Peterson honored at shower

Miss Joycelyn Peterson of Arlington Heights was guest of honor at a bridal shower Monday evening given by Mrs. Melvin Fisher of Mt. Prospect. Several were present to celebrate the occasion. Many lovely gifts were opened by the bride-to-be under a dainty pink and white parasol. The balance of the evening was spent playing games, which were followed by refreshments.

The marriage of Miss Peterson to William E. Gordon will take place Saturday, October 11.

At Bradley

Miss Betty Bauer of Palatine left Sunday to attend Bradley University at Peoria, Ill.

Ask village to declare war on starlings

Residents in the vicinity of Pine and Euclid streets, Arlington Heights, have asked the village to take steps to rid them of the nuisance created by thousands of starlings who hang out in the heavy foliage of that area. Shooting does not seem to do much good. Trustee Hoffie was spokesman last week for the residents who ask relief. He suggested that a "metal hoot owl" be tried next year. West Allis, Wis. made such installations, which

SUE BARRINGTON

Paul L. Thoren and Eldon Gieske have sued the village of Barrington in the Superior court for an accounting and payment of amounts alleged due on special assessment bonds. They claim to own $10,000 in bonds on which the charge $6,073 in principal and interest is overdue. They allege the village has collected part of this money but has failed to pay them their share.

drove the birds to a neighboring community. East Euclid people do not care where the birds go, just so they leave that area.

Great Books Seminar

October 8th has been scheduled for the first meeting of the first year group of the Great Books Seminar that is now forming. The meeting will be held in the Arlington Heights high school library and will start at 8 p.m.

Further details in regards to this course may be obtained by calling Richard Lull, Arlington Heights 1352 W or A. Mason Brown, Mt. Prospect 937-M. Membership in this class has been limited to 45, thus those who wish to enroll should call either Mr. Lull or Mr. Brown.

St. James Fall Festival planned for November

Tuesday evening the St. James Catholic Woman's Guild of Arlington Heights held their regular meeting which was well attended. The main topic of discussion was the Annual Fall Festival which will be held some time in November. Various committees for this event have already been assigned. Father Stier gave a short talk at the meeting and also sincerely thanked the women of the guild for presenting him with a spiritual bouquet last Sunday in remembrance of his 29th year of priesthood.

All women of the Guild were urged by their chairman, Mrs. Lillian Cizak, to attend the National Council meeting October 3, which will be held at St. Paul of the Cross church in Park Ridge, at 2 p. m. After the business meeting the group enjoyed playing buncle. A door prize, which was a cake, was awarded to Mrs. T. Bodar. Raffle prizes of cake were won by Mrs. B. Brehm and Mrs. H. O'Connor. The Guild has a surprise envelope of the month opened at each meeting. The contents of this month's envelope awarded the youngest member present a prize. The prize was a plate of fruit and it was awarded to Mrs. Vance Folkman.

Refreshments were then served by the refreshment committee which consisted of Mesdames R. Aman, T. Bodar, H. Bakalar, E. Clark, C. Coy, V. Folkman, M. Froemberg, S. Heckmiller, and R. Zimmer. Members are reminded to attend the monthly communion on October 5, when members of the guild will receive communion in a body at the seven o'clock mass. The next meeting of the Guild will be October 28.

St. Peter Sunday school to hold rally day

Both main and branch Sunday schools of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will conduct a joint rally day program during the English service next Sunday, beginning at 10:45 a. m. All pupils of the two thriving Sunday schools will form a processional march at the opening of the divine service and present a brief program in word and song. The pastor's sermon will stress the work of Christian education in the Sunday schools. Children of three years or older are enrolled. For further information call the pastor, Rev. L. V. Stephen, 256, or the superintendent, K. L. Busse, 1352-M, for the main school, or the assistant superintendent, Luther Schwich, 325-J, for the branch school on Palatine road.

New resident supplies shopping need of Arlington Ridge

Mrs. Florence Metler, a resident in Arlington Ridge the past year, saw no reason why the women of her locality should be required to walk down town for food shopping. Accordingly a partnership was formed with her husband and brother-in-law and the former real estate office at 1400 West Northwest Highway was purchased. A neat and attractive food store has been opened with Florence as the manager. That area is growing fast and its residents are trading "at home."

Let's Face Hard Facts

SOME DAY these good times will be over.

SOME DAY production will catch up with demand, employment will be down and most of the world will be looking to us for a handout. Taxes will be terrific.

ISN'T it plain horse sense to save now for the rugged days that lie ahead. We don't mean to hoard, but lay something aside for the time when money won't be so easy to make.

IF YOU don't have a bank account please accept this invitation to get started. It's the best move you'll ever make.

Arlington girl one of 14 to receive saddle horse as a gift

Love of horses, inherited from her father and a farm in Iowa, won for Barbara Ryan, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ryan, 610 Fairview, Arlington Heights, one of the fifteen saddle horses given away last week by Maynard Dowell. The owner of the string, a Chicago executive and horse lover, decided to give away his animals to deserving persons.

Following announcement of his intention in the press, he received 16,145 requests. Barbara's was one of them.

Mr. Ryan was a member of the black horse troop when he attended Culver. The horse, delivered last week, is stabled for the present near Barrington, with Barbara and her dad making about three trips a week

75 Cub scouts and parents attend picnic

Seventy-five cub scouts and their families enjoyed the picnic and pack meeting held by Arlington Heights Cub Park 232 Saturday afternoon and evening, September 20, at Elk Grove.

A full program of games and contests was conducted during the afternoon. Prizes were awarded as follows: 50 yard dash, 9 year olds Richard Stocking, first; Jack Robertson, second; Dennis Evans, third; 10 year-olds, Douglas Morrissey, first; riger Hintz, second; Dennis Mayer, third; 11 year olds, John Schockmel, first; Robert Frisk, second; Thomas Reed, third; distance ball throw, 9 year olds, Richard Stocking, first; David Reed, second; Dennis Evans, third.

10 year olds: James Schultheiss, first; Ten Bakalar, second; John Theis, third; eleven year olds, Elmer Klehm, first; Thomas Reed, second; Robert Dotts, third. The relay race run by teams from each den was won by Den 12, consisting of James Laughlin, Robert Frisk, Raymond Stockwell and Robert Dotts. The same team from Den 12 with the addition of Richard Malcomson also won the chariot race.

The bubble blowing contest was the cause of a lot of excitement. After due deliberation the contest judges announced Paul Otto was the champion. Paul received a two foot candy cane for his efforts and will probably not have time to blow any bubbles for quite a while.

Between contests the cubs enjoyed pop, ice cream and chocolate milk dispensed by Arlington Heights' singing milk man, Richard Michalski.

After a picnic supper a ceremony was held inducting the following boys as members of Pack 232: Dennis Evans, Jack Kindler, Burton Bauer, David Reed, Frederick Steingraber and Scott Moritz.

The Webelo award was given to Herbie Gorder and James Thomson who were accepted into troop 32 by Scoutmaster Arthur Cubley and to Gerald Clignon, Rodney Peltier and Robert Moritz who were accepted into troop 7 by Scoutmaster Martin Freeman.

ert Moritz who were accepted into troop 7 by Scoutmaster Martin Freeman.

During the evening program several skits were enacted by the following cubs of Den 9: Wayne Hesch, Richard Stocking, David Fellingham, David Brown, Rodney Peltier, Robert Blocker and Robert Kyska.

Den Dads of Pack 232 are planning to attend the cub training session to be held on Saturday afternoon and evening, September 27, at Des Plaines Congregational church. The cubbing program in Arlington Hts. should benefit from the training and new ideas that the den dads will obtain at the Wel-e-ka-how which is the name of the session.

Four new polio cases in suburbs

Four new suburban polio victims were reported over the week end by Dr. Edward A. Piszecki, Cook County health director.

The total number of suburban polio cases now number 50 and no deaths for the year, as compared with 170 cases and eight deaths for the similar period in 1946.

The new cases were reported as a 15-year-old girl in Oak Park, a 17-year-old boy in Palos Park, a 9-year-old boy in Northbrook, and a 4-year-old girl in Glenview.

Slightly less than half of the county cases were reported in September when 20 cases were reported. Last year for the entire month of September there were 36 cases.

Sleep Well?

by C. W. LUSSMAN of Sieburg Drug Store

Of all the restorative powers that Nature holds in store, none is more beneficial than sound, refreshing sleep.

If you sleep well, you can meet the cares of the day with comparative ease. Lack of sleep ravel's the nerves, creates a mounting tension, depletes the system.

No amount of sedatives, no careful use of sleep inducing drugs, suffices the calm restful sleep which Nature intended human beings to enjoy.

Consult your doctor if you cannot sleep well. He will advise you what to do, his prescription can be trusted.

Have this filled by a capable pharmacist.

RAMBLE INN 'N OUTINGS

by BILL NORTH

Now that autumn has set in and the days are becoming more and more brisk and the leaves are beginning to turn and fall, the Youth Center committees are looking forward to their second season of social events and recreation. The Y. C. as most of you already know opened last Wednesday and it was one bang-up opening. The kids were again dancing, talking, playing, and generally enjoying the hospitality and atmosphere of Ramble Inn.

You know, you never realize how much you miss a place until it isn't around. That's the way it has been with Ramble Inn. During the summer, its activity was limited. But now Ramble Inn is once more the place where you can ramble in for a Coke, dance, and a game of ping-pong. It's better than ever. Let's keep it that way.

For the benefit of those of you who haven't seen the new decorations, here is the general scheme. In the lounge, the floor is a dark red, the ceiling a light blue, and the base boards a pigeon grey. The murals are the same and there is a red border on the wall. The dance floor is also dark red while the walls are a light green and the ceiling a sunny yellow. There will be added holiday decorations for Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas.

—Y. C.—

Lew Draper and Doris Meyer are additions to the list of students on the redecoration committee. Lew did a terrific job on the ceiling. I owe Doris Meyer an apology for not giving her proper recognition sooner. I hope she will accept this as my most abject apology.

—Y. C.—

Say, when you come down to Ramble Inn remember to bring your membership cards with you. We want to keep Ramble Inn nice and the only way we can do this is to keep it exclusive. This means that the door committee will have to check membership cards.

All who haven't yet bought your cards may get them at the Y. C. any time it's open. They still cost only $1.00.

Instead of an out and out heel. Yes, our teams are going into the season determined to triumph, but lose or win. They're every one welcome without reason. To know triumph or solace at Ramble Inn.

Denies Elk Grove farm rezoning

The Public Service Committee of the County Board of Commissioners, concurring in a decision by the Zoning Board of Appeals, Monday turned down a proposed zoning reclassification of a 1/2-acre plot in Elk Grove township from farming to tavern and amusement.

The property is located on the northwest corner of Landmeier and Higgins roads. The owner is Jack Zinko, 6271 Hyacinth st. "The owner," read the Committee decision, "had no definite plans, and was apparently undecided as to just what he wanted to do with the property, having mentioned at the public hearing that he was opening a restaurant, a grocery, or a tavern."

It was pointed out in the decision that Zinko bought the property in the spring of this year and should have known of the zoning ordinance.

Trustees of School Board number 59 objected to the proposed zoning change at a public hearing.

Decree entered on Weller creek special

Circuit Judge William V. Brothers on Monday entered a decree of sale against delinquent property owing annual installments No. 5 to 16 inclusive on special assessments for the creation of Weller Creek Drainage Maintenance district in 1925 and 1926. The property adjoins or is in Mt. Prospect.

The amounts owing ranged from a few dollars per installment on individual lots to a total of $4,500 on the entire west one-half of the northwest quarter of Section 10, Elk Grove township, which section is south of Central road and west of Buse road.

Owing on the south one-half of the northeast quarter of the same section is approximately $1,200. Included are individual lots in Ernest Busse's Addition, Wheeling township, and H. Roy Berry Company's Colonial Manor and Prospect Highlands, both adjacent to the Northwest highway in Section 12 of Elk Grove.

Chicago Sun

Next Monday The Chicago Sun will change its size—but not its character.

With a new format, about half the size of the conventional newspaper page, The Sun will print more pages per issue... will continue to cover all the news—local, national, foreign, sports, business and also important markets. The Feminine Angle and other Sun features, columns and comics have been retained, new attractions added.

The new size page is more compact, and can be handled and read more conveniently at the breakfast table, in a crowded car or bus, is easier to read.

Since most morning newspapers must be read in transit, and within limited time, the new model Sun is better suited to most readers. Sample the new Sun next Monday—for a more satisfying morning newspaper!

Bigger than the Law in Lake County?

Open gambling goes on in Lake County... close by the North Shore's smartest suburbs and country estates, prosperous farm communities and fat factory payrolls... A luxurious, well-appointed "Club" offers play for high stakes, has a limousine service for customers, maintains its own private guards!... THREE SCHOOLS SECEDE FROM NORTHEAST CONFERENCE

new lineup to take effect at end of school year

By G. A. McElroy
Sports Editor

Eight years ago six schools seceded from the old Northwest conference to join with Crystal Lake and Woodstock in forming the Northeast Conference. This past week three of those six secessionists moved again. Lake Forest, Libertyville, and Warren officially resigned their membership in the Northeast and have joined with Zion and Grayslake in the formation of a new prep league.

The split in the Northeast Conference is effective at the close of the present school year. The new league will be named and officers elected at a meeting to be held October 22. The league may operate for a time with just five members but a number of schools are possibilities. Prominently mentioned are Woodstock, Northbrook, Grant, Antioch, and Barrington.

NEW LEAGUE is made up entirely of Lake County schools all located within a 10 mile radius. It is not the intention of the league schools to limit membership to schools of their own county but they do hope to keep the group a compact one to avoid long trips and one of somewhat equal enrollment to avoid uneven competition. According to some of the principals involved, Arlington Heights, Niles, and Leyden are growing away from the rest of the county and maintaining the best of competition. Warren, especially has found their small size a real handicap competing with schools five times their size.

The schools in the new league take the name of principal and enrollment in each case follow:

Lake Forest, Raymond Moore, 200.

Libertyville, H. E. Underbrink, 100.

Zion-Benton, H. W. Pearce, 100.

Warren, D. W. Thompson, 200.

Grayslake, A. E. Johnson, 225.

Schools which might consider joining the new league are: Antioch 300, Grant 330, Woodstock 300, Northbrook 225, and Barrington 310.

Schools remaining in the Northeast Conference are Arlington Heights 725, Niles Twp. 950, Leyden 950, Crystal Lake 475, and Woodstock 380.

Bensenville high school's football Bisons resume play this Friday night under the lights after a week's rest when the York Union varsity appears in town to face the Northwest conference in their final warmup game.

The Bisons showed well against Hinsdale two weeks ago and moved to Northwest league status that they will be heard from when the time comes to pick a champion in the conference. Though succumbing, 8-0, to Bensenville, the Bisons played Hinsdale on an even terms.

Coach Meneguini's boys will be in force at 7:30 Friday night to give local fans another opportunity to see prep football under the lights. This will be the first "gate receipt" contest for a high school, the local VFW paying themselves in part at Hinsdale tilt for putting in the lights without cost to the school board.

Afternoon football has always been supported by basketball in the past. Beginning this fall the sport will become self-supporting institution at Bensenville, and perhaps paying for other intramural sports, giving more DuPage boys an opportunity to develop physically in high school.

Friday night the local school manage all proceeds of the game, with local fans aiding the athletic program by their attendance.

Bensenville opens the conference season next week end by traveling to Antioch for an afternoon game on Friday, October 3. The following week, October 10, the Bisons will play host to Arlington.

BY GERALD McELROY

The big news of the week is the break up of the Northeast Conference with the secession of Lake Forest, Libertyville, and Warren. Just what will the remaining five schools do? It will be a tough outlook for Woodstock staying with the other four for they have been having a rough time as it is. Will one of the big three (Arlington, Leyden, Niles) join the seven school West Suburban League and further wreck the Northeast? Will Woodstock join the new league as a last resort? If this happens what would the remaining three schools do? If the new league grabs a couple of members from the Northwest what would happen to that league? Members of the Northwest could hardly merge with remaining Northeast schools because of size differences at present. It might be feasible in a few years but not now. Will feelers from Lake Forest and others swing Northbrook, Barrington, Grant, or Antioch into a break up of the Northwest?

All these are questions that come to mind as one thinks of the complications which may result from the drastic action taken last week end by Lake County schools.

Warren, Zion and Grayslake had good reason for wanting new league

It certainly is not hard to see why Warren wants a change. They no doubt have regretted for some time their decision to remain in the Northeast eight years ago when the Northwest was split. Zion and Grayslake are not in a conference and cannot be blamed for wanting membership since free lance scheduling is a real handicap to development of good teams and promotion of sports interest.

Libertyville and Lake Forest have not grown much in the last five years. The golden years of sports at Libertyville when the Wildcats dominated the Northwest and for a time the Northeast seem to have small chance of returning as a Northeast member. Lake Forest at the moment the top team in the Northeast in football cannot hope to stay there year after year and has not recently too much in basketball recently.

As far as the 2 last mentioned we feel that a good league is one in which competition is even enough to pass championships around and we do not think that the split is due to lack of winning teams. According to some coaches Lake Forest would have a tough time getting a Northeast football schedule to their liking another year after much bickering on the question of day versus night football.

Split may be for the best after all

It may be that the split will be for the best all around. There was much hard feeling when the old unwieldy 14 team Northwest broke up eight years ago but it was the finest thing that ever happened to the small schools and certainly did develop much stronger teams in the larger institutions due to better competition. What the lineup will be two years from now is as much your guess as ours.

Northeast season opens this week

Who will win the Northeast football title is the question in the minds of most fans of this area as the league openers are on tap Friday and Saturday. All we know about it is the report we have had from the schools and what we know of the previous experience and record of the veterans returning at each school. Last year our guess on the final standings of the teams in games won and lost was 75% correct. We doubt if we can pick the order of finish any better.

Lake Forest-Niles to battle for NE grid title

Last year we picked Lake Forest to win with Niles second and see no reason to change the order for this season. In fact we expect this pair to be quite a little stronger than the rest of the league. We do not think that Lake Forest will go through undefeated as they did last year.

Coach Lindenmeyer has two very good linemen and five fine backs returning with good resumes from a year ago. If they get by Arlington Saturday we pick them to win six out of seven. Niles has good men returning and the building program of a recreation and athletic year round program in Skokie has begun to bring the result of making Niles a top contender in all sports.

Niles may also have a 6-1 record but we will put them a notch behind Lake Forest though we think they will be the only team to whip the Scouts Friday night. Niles meets a tough team in Leyden and they must be ready to go at mid season pace to get by the opener.

We like to think that Arlington Heights will make the first division and take at least third. The Cards have as good a line as they come but has many backfield weaknesses. Leyden and Crystal Lake look like a toss up for the fourth spot with Libertyville sixth Woodstock seventh and Warren last.

Leyden showed strength in disposing of Hinsdale Friday night. Crystal Lake looked good in losing 19-14 to an all veteran Harvard eleven. Libertyville appears to be improved over a year ago. Last year our worst picks were that of rating Leyden too low and Libertyville too high.

Arlington host to Lake Forest in NE opener

Northeast conference gridiron stalwarts begin their final season of play as a league this week end when three night games and one afternoon fracas are slated for completion.

Arlington Heights, just one week after dedicating their brand new lighting system before a crowd of 3,500, will play host to Lake Forest in an afternoon contest Saturday with an expected crowd of 300-500 in attendance. The Foresters are against night football.

The Cards opened their season last week by defeating Barrington, 28-6, and looked impressive in competition against the Northwest conference entry. This week, however, it may be a different story.

LAKE FOREST Scouts come to town with last year's championship still tucked under their belts. They landed in second spot in '45, first in '46, and are picked to be first in '47.

Coach Larson's Arlington gridmen are rated third position in the conference, but may be just the team to mar the Scouts' record for the season. Game time is scheduled for Saturday at 2 p. m.

OTHER GAMES in the league will all be played Friday night. Leyden travels to Niles, Warren plays at Crystal Lake and Libertyville journeys to Woodstock. All night contests begin at 8 p. m.

AAA 'town team' to complete roster Sunday

The Arlington Athletic Association football team has sent out its second "tryout practice" for this coming Sunday, September 28, at 9 a. m., at the Arlington fieldhouse, adjacent to the ball park.

The team, a highly organized and well balanced organization, will play its games "under lights." Complete equipment of the highest caliber has been obtained by the team.

PLAYERS interested are urged to attend this practice as it will definitely determine the roster of the team, and consequently the ordering of uniforms sizes. Further information may be obtained by calling coaches Ed Chervin, Arlington Heights 1982-J, or Bob Henry, Arlington Hts. 71.

Northbrook may surprise as before in NW

By G. A. McElroy,
Sports Editor

In 1946 Northbrook surprised the critics by winning all their conference games and taking an undisputed football championship. Last year Coach Bill Lutz moaned about his poor prospects and lost to Lake Forest 33-0 in one pre-season game. This year Bill Lutz is just as mournful about his Vikings and last Friday dropped a 25-0 decision to Lake Forest. One hardly knows what to expect from Northbrook this year.

Coach Lutz has 11 lettermen but few regulars from last year's team. Northbrook had a well balanced team with much reserve strength in 1946. Those reserves will be the regulars this year. Regulars among the lettermen are Bob Esp, 160, back; Bob Schildgen, 190, tackle and all-league selection. The nine other lettermen have all had much experience in varsity competition. They include Bob Wiest, 160, guard; Mel Kronn, 165, center; Tom Bandow, 140, back; Don Koelper, 175, guard; George Kennedy, 160, end; Ronald Cooksey, 150, back; Gene Lesch, 175, back; Robert Werhane, 180, tackle, and Roger Schultz, 160, back. Northbrook's lettermen average 165 pounds.

Northbrook opens the league season under the lights at Glenview against Palatine next week, Friday, October 3. The opener should be a very evenly matched game. Northbrook may not be in the running for the championship this year, but they definitely should be a first division club if the material comes through as expected.

Two golf pros in match

Two golf professionals, Ben Rilev and Gene Battistoni, will match skills against each other for a $100 prize this Sunday at old Orchard golf course. The 36 hole match play will be run off with 18 holes starting at 10 a. m. and 18 holes at 3 p. m. The public is invited.

Grid prospects

Libertyville rates 'fair' while Warren is 'improved'

By G. A. McElroy
Sports Editor

Five lettermen are available as a nucleus for Coach Bob Steinhebel, the new grid mentor at Libertyville. The Wildcat squad is always one of the biggest in the conference and 90 candidates greeted the new coach in early workouts. Libertyville's 7-0 victory last Friday over a good Zion team stamps the "Cats" as at least a fair ball team.

Fred Becker, converted from guard to fullback, weighs 200 pounds. Other veteran backs—Jack Didier, 175 halfback, and Tom Herr, 165 end, Don Bornell, 175 guard, are outstanding performers returning from last season. In Saturday's game it was a pass from Didier to Herr for 35 yards which scored the winning touchdown.

The Wildcats may not finish in the first division but they will give a good account of themselves in all games. They should be off to a good start at Woodstock Friday in the league opener. Bob Kelton, former Warren coach, and Frank Johnson are assisting with Libertyville coaching.

Bud Nangle of Palatine new sports editor DeKalb Chronicle

Bud Nangle, former Palatine high school basketball player, and more recently coach of last year's LaLonde Realtors basketball squad, has taken the job of sports editor of the Chronicle at De Kalb, Illinois.

Bud, writer of many sports articles for Paddock Publications in the past, will handle sports activities of both the college and the high school at De Kalb.

"Kleiner of Arlington is on the football squad at the college," writes Bud, "but he has not been tested in competition as yet. Other athletes from Northeast and Northwest conference here are Nelson of Crystal Lake, and Hildebrandt, Kolze and Stinson of Palatine."

NW conf. open play next week

Next week the Northwest Conference season opens with three night games. Bensenville's league favorite Bisons will play at Antioch, the school doped to finish in the cellar while Palatine plays Northbrook at Glenview under the arcs in Friday night games. Northbrook's home games have been shifted from Saturday afternoon to Friday night with the leasing of a lighted Glenview field.

Both Palatine and Northbrook will be battling for a first division spot this year. The Vikings are defending champs but lost most of last year's regulars except Schildgen and Esp though they have 11 lettermen available.

Saturday night Barrington takes on Grant at Fox Lake after a hectic pre-season trio of games with Dundee, Arlington, and Zion. Grant should look easy beside their early opponents but the Broncos may be too banged up to take advantage of Grant. A close game is expected but Grant backfield speed may be the edge.

This week a fast improving Palatine eleven takes on Lemont who does not appear to be nearly as strong as a year ago when they whipped the Pirates 21-6. Palatine expects to chalk up a victory after a winless year in 1946. It will be Palatine's second home game of the season and will start at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

In other non-league games York reserves play at Bensenville, Barrington is at Zion, and Grayslake at Antioch in Friday night games.

Grayslake has 70 report

Grayslake High football team coached by Jack Sticksels, former Libertyville and Lake Forest College star, plays the second game of an eight game schedule at Antioch Friday night. Grayslake has a big squad of 79 out for football though having a student body of only 225.

Last year the new school had a losing season but expects more success this year. Outstanding boys are James Burke, 205, tackle; Don Snyder, 175, end; Gerald Peterson, 170, guard; and Jerry Winters, 150, quarterback. A pair of boys with no previous experience who have moved from Elia are good prospects. They are Ray Boreys, 175, tackle; and Don Hoff, 155, halfback.

Grayslake schedule after Antioch Friday includes Elgin Reserves at Grayslake on October 4, Immaculate Conception at Elmhurst on October 11, Zion at Zion the evening of October 17, Lemont at Grayslake on October 25 (Homecoming); Lake Geneva at Grayslake on November 1 and Waukegan reserves at Grayslake on November 7.

Next year Grayslake will be in the new Lake County league with Zion, Lake Forest, Libertyville, Warren and others yet to be added.

3,500 attend dedication of new field lights

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

It was a great ceremony that took place on the Arlington Heights Township gridiron last Friday evening, as over 3,500 cheering spectators witnessed a great dedication of Arlington's new lights, scoreboard and uniforms. The ceremony was highlighted with a speech by Albert Willis, executive secretary of the Illinois High School Athletic Association.

WITH THE field still darkened, except for a spotlight, the starting lineup for both teams was announced as the players trotted out one-by-one, on the field.

Arlington won the toss and chose to receive and defend the south goal. The kickoff went into the arms of Jim Borrough, right half, who returned it 9 yards to the 31. Lew Draper, on the first play, netted 4 yards and August Krause, sophomore fullback, found a big hole and plowed for a first down on the 45, but an off-side penalty moved the Cards back to the 40, where on the third down Heights fumbled with Barrington recovering on the 35.

ARLINGTON'S great line then tightened up and the Broncos lost the ball on downs. However, Arlington also failed to gain but a few yards and Draper sent a nice kick to Barrington's 28. On the next play the Broncos were penalized 15 yards back to the 15. After a pass failed, Eby punted to Bill Robinson, quarterback, on the 35, and behind excellent interference he side-stepped several would-be tacklers and sped across the goal line for the local's first touchdown of the season. Lancilotti's conversion was wide and Heights kicked off with a 6-0 lead.

Barrington took the kickoff on the 30 and for three downs failed to gain against the Cards' well-balanced line. Eby punted for the Broncos and Draper returned it neatly to the visitors' 31. Krause then banged his way up to the 27. A pass was complete, but on the third down Robinson faded back and flipped an 18 yard pass to right end, Paul Ransdell on the 12, who skirted the rest of the way for the Cards' second tally. The extra point was again no good and Arlington led 12-0.

Play was kept well near midfield after the kickoff, until, with about two minutes remaining, the locals controlling the ball, Draper, Robinson, and Krause drove up to the 11-yard line in a series of plays, where the quarter ended.

BARRINGTON'S linesmen toughened up in the second period and stopped Arlington's threat on the 9. From there on, both squads played an even game, and no serious scoring threats were made as the half ended with the Cards controlling the ball on their own 43, and holding a 12-0 half-time edge.

John Shanley kicked off for the Cards and Larson was smothered on the 17. The Broncos were stopped cold and Eby punted on the last down. Robinson returned the punt 8 yards to the visitors' 31. On the third down, quarterback Robinson whipped a 10-yard pass to Lew Draper who ran 12 yards to the 14 for a first down.

HOWEVER, Robinson, attempting to pass again, was caught back on the 26. But again his passing skill brought the locals up to the 13. The Broncos took over on their 6 and on the first play Walter Beckman, acting captain, broke through and smeared Larson behind the goal for a safety. This put Arlington in front 14-0.

Barrington kicked off and in a series of plays the Cards had smashed from the 50 to the 41. On the third down, August Krause swept around left end and out ran two would-be tacklers to chalk up a 41-yard touch-

Stephan's 53 yard run brings Pirates 6-6 tie at Woodstock

Palatine's Pirates came into their own Friday night at Woodstock where they played a 6-6 tie with the Northeast Conference team. Palatine outgained the Blue Streaks and showed poise and playing spirit which was very gratifying to Pirate supporters.

down. Ken Bork made the conversion and the Cards went farther ahead, 21-0.

SHORTLY AFTER Heights kicked off, Phil Roche recovered a bad center by the visitors on Barrington's 16. Draper moved it up to the 7, but 20 yards in penalties moved it back to the 27. Robinson again completed a pass to Ralph Engelking on the 19, where the quarter ended.

On the first play in the last period, Robinson tossed his second and touchdown pass of the evening to Bill Wagner who sped 5 yards over the goal. Again Bork converted to stretch the locals lead to 28-0. However Barrington didn't give up. With about two minutes left in the game they started passing desperately.

A SERIES of two passes brought the Broncos from Arlington's 36 to the 17. Another pass carried them to the 12 and on second down Tukey fired a touchdown pass to Joe Hansen for the visitor's only score. The extra point wasn't good and the contest ended shortly thereafter with Heights the victor, 28-6.

Coach Larson used every available player in the lineup. Fortunately no casualties were suffered by Arlington who meets Lake Forest at the local field next Saturday at 2:00 o'clock, in a contest which is marked as a "toughie".

MAC SAYS

Judson pitched the game, his 13th straight victory.

This same Judson was one of the finest basketball players ever developed in northern Illinois. He was a star at Illinois in both basketball and baseball. Judson may get a shot at the big time in the near future. Waterloo is a White Sox farm club.

Grover, Dundee star, passes up Illini for Bradley Tech

We note in the Champaign News-Gazette that Bud Grover, all-state Dundee forward, is not going to Illinois as we had thought. Doug Mills is quite unhappy about the fact that Grover has decided to join his team mate of the previous year, Dobler, down at Bradley Tech.

Bradley has one of the top reputations in this area in the matter of providing attractive propositions for outstanding athletes. Illinois made up for the loss of Grover, however, when it was stated that Ken McBride of Centralia, all state college guard, and Frank Carroll, all-state guard from New Trier, had enrolled for athletics with the Illini.

Picks of the week

Last week we only picked six right out of nine non-league games. Here we go again.

In Northeast openers it looks like Niles over Leyden by two touchdowns Friday night. Crystal Lake to beat Warren by one touchdown, and Libertyville to nose out Woodstock. Saturday Lake Forest will beat Arlington by 13-7.

In non-league games it looks like Zion will take Barrington, Palatine will whip Lemont, Bensenville will beat York JV team, and Antioch will beat Grayslake. Grant and Northbrook are idle this week.

Pirate frosh-sophs lose to Northbrook

Palatine's frosh-soph football team fell Monday night 27-7 before a heavier and more experienced Northbrook eleven, which included some juniors. Ralph Sherman scored Palatine's touchdown.

Zion-Benton beats Libertyville

Coach Bob Steinhebel's Libertyville Wildcats, after displaying little offensive ability and being forced to repel three Zion-Benton touchdown bids in the opening half, suddenly came to life in the third period to drive 48 yards for the game's only touchdown, and a 7-0 victory in a game at Libertyville, Friday.

Libertyville's break came mid-way in the third period, when an alert Wildcat recovered a 45-yard fumble or the visitor's 45-yard line. A short pass from Cliff Jensen to Bob Schroeder gave the Wildcats possession on the ZeeBee 40-yard line and Fred Becker broke through for a first down on the visitor's 32-yard line. Successive running plays by Jack Didier and Schroeder gave the home eleven another first down on the Zion-Benton 12-yard line. Schroeder lost three yards, but Didier circled right end and was knocked out of bounds on the 5-yard line. On the next play Didier lobbed a pass to Tommy Herr, who was standing in the end zone for the touchdown. Fred Becker booted the extra point.

The Zion-Bentonites completely dominated play in the opening half and were stopped three within the Wildcat 5-yard stripe.

A check on the game's statistics reveals that Zion-Benton gained a wide margin in first downs with nine, compared to only four for the visitors and picked up a total of 130 yards from scrimmage and 56 yards on passes, while Libertyville had but 85 yards from scrimmage and 36 yards from passing. Fritz Ridenour, Ollie Wright and Wendy Stuebeaker shared the offensive honors for the ZeeBees while Jack Didier was a complete standout for the Wildcats with a total 54 yards.

Rain postpones motorcycle race

The Illinois championship motorcycle race that was to be held at Chateau Grove on Sunday was postponed by the heavy rain that covered this entire area.

This last race of the season which is the culmination of a season of activity will be held at the first Sunday available. The present plans are for September 28th and with this extra week and softer ground to work with the club is making a faster track by improving the surface. A fine race will be expected.

The added attraction at this final race will be a flaming wall crash by Walt Grimm of Lisle, Ill.

Rain halts midget races at Milwaukee until this Sunday

America's greatest midget speedway drivers, impatient after last week's postponement because of rain, will reassemble at Wisconsin State Fair park in Milwaukee next Sunday afternoon, Sept. 28, for the Wisconsin Auto Racing Association's championship 100-mile midget auto race on what has been termed

"the fastest one-mile dirt track in the nation."

The 24 fastest cars in the time trials will participate in the century classic, the lineup for which is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock. There will be a 10-mile semi-final event at 2 o'clock for the next 12 fastest cars.

Marchese has announced that all tickets issued for Sept. 21 will be honored next Sunday. The advance sale is continuing this week, and duets will be available at the grandstand before the races.

World Series of golf at Tam

Saturday and Sunday, September 27th and 28th, Ben Hogan, Bobby Locke, Jimmy Demaret, Sam Snead, Jim Ferrier, Lew Worsham, Lloyd Mangrum and Johnny Palmer will play for the World Championship in a 36-hole golf match at Tam O'Shanter Country Club, Chicago, Ill.

Sam Snead is the defending champion, having won the 1946 International championship, played at Tam O'Shanter last year and the 1947 British Open Champion. Bobby Locke is the 1947 All-American Professional champion and the 1947 Canadian Open Champion. He is also the leading money golfer of the year.

Ben Hogan is the 1947 Victory National Champion, runner-up to Locke from the money standpoint and will make his second appearance in the Chicago district this year. Jim Ferrier is the 1947 P. G. A. Champion. Lew Worsham is the 1947 U. S. National Open Champion. Jimmy Demaret is the Masters Open Champion. Lloyd Mangrum is the 1947 South American Champion. Johnny Palmer is the Western Open Champion.

IN ADDITION to the world's largest golf trophy, this contest will shoot for the title of World's Golf Champion of 1947 and the $5,000.00 in cash prize.

This trophy, which was won last year by Sam Snead, whose name at the present time is the only name appearing on it, is on exhibition at Tam O'Shanter where it will remain until it has been won three times in succession by the same contestant, at which time it will go into his permanent possession.

Chicago horse show opens next week

The next eight days will be intensely busy ones in readying the spectacular Chicago Horse Show for its gala opening a week from Friday night, (October 3) at the 234 E. Chicago Ave. armory, where it will continue through October 12, with competition each evening and matinees each Saturday and Sunday.

Entries have passed the 1,500 mark, and A. P. Fleming, general manager, reported that horses valued at $3,000,000 will battle it out in the ring for the $60,000 in cash awards and trophies.

Admirers of fine horseflesh from this area will make the armory their headquarters during the 10-day run of the show. They will be well rewarded as they view in action the greatest gaited, harness, hackney, roadster, hunter, jumper, Palomino, western and Tennessee walking horses of the United States and Canada.

Ticket headquarters for the show have been opened at The Fair store in Chicago's loop and at the armory, with $1.20 to $3.60 as the price range and the Illinois National Guard Benefit Association receiving the proceeds.

We have made available for this Special Offering a limited number of 4-Grave and 6-Grave Lots — 100 in all. Those who apply first will receive first choice. Therefore we suggest that you mail the coupon below at once for information. There is no obligation.

A down payment will assure your family an eternal resting place in Beautiful Randhill Park — strictly a Memorial Park "where Nature enshrines eternal memories." No unsightly tombstones to mar the beauty of Mother Nature. Only lawn-high headstones of uniform design are permitted, thus preserving the strict Park Cemetery environment forever.

Randhill Park is a non-sectarian Park Cemetery. It has been in operation continuously for almost a quarter century. It operates under charter of the State of Illinois. Its scenic and horticultural beauty are the pride of all residents of the northwest suburbs.

All Lots included in this Offering are in fully developed sections with paved roads and all improvements complete. Full Perpetual Care is included without extra cost. This assures you absolute freedom from worry throughout the years to come.

Thinking people usually choose their family plot BEFORE the need arises. This offering enables you to do so at a saving, as prices are certain to advance. Mail the coupon for low prices prevailing during this Offering.

Chas. Dean injured in race

Chas. Dean, Sr. had a narrow escape at the Libertyville fair last Friday when in the 2:25 pace he was run into by J. Bougert of Ottawa. In the mix-up the sulky shaft was run into Mr. Dean's thigh nearly two inches. The wound was promptly treated and Mr.
Dean has been able to continue at the races.

The next day Charlie Dean,
Jr. was thrown from his sulky in the 2:17 pace, but his horse was quickly stopped and he was not hurt.

Arlington team loses 27 to 7

The Suburban All Stars,
Arlington football team, lost
the first game of the season 27 to 7 at the south side grounds. This defeat, however, showed up the weak points of the team and by Sunday they will be remediated. Several new men will appear in uniform Sunday.

Lagerhausen, familiarly known as "Knock 'Em Dead Langie," will play one of the halves. Harkness, Bierman, and Hummel will play in the line. Kiemer will be shifted to the backfield and Schne-berger to the line. The new outfits, which were due to arrive before Sunday, are now on hand and 15 uniformed players will be on the field.

Tales of the STREET

BY R. C. HART

TREE TOMATOES

No sooner had George Gsch-windt made his appearance with these luscious golden tomatoes than along came Jack Trent with a new variety called the tree tomato and they surely were the biggest whoppers we had ever seen.

Jack lives out in the country on John Wertz farm, and he set out some of those tree tomatoes and staked them up. They grew seven feet tall and bore a bumper crop of big fine texture and almost seedless fruit. The three that he brought in weighed a total of four pounds, five ounces with the largest of the trio tipping the scale at two pounds, one ounce.

The plants came from Knupper's Nursery, where Jack works, and their seedlessness is a natural feature of the variety as no seedless seed was used on the plants. R. C. Knupper also reports good crops from some of those tree tomato plants that he set out and didn't stake but just let run at large.

Mr. Trent also brought in a nice sample of well cured purple pop corn, the seed from which came from Wisconsin.

PEACHES

Not to be outdone by the tomato fanciers Clyde Moffett showed up one morning with a couple of handfuls of the juiciest peaches a person could want to taste. They were of good size, beautifully colored and had yielded three bushels from one tree, being so thick on the tree that Clyde had to prop up the branches to keep the tree from falling all apart.

Those peaches show that that fruit can be grown in this uncertain climate and in some seasons at least will yield fine crops.

TAX OBJECTIONS

Local taxing bodies are going to find themselves up against it for a long time. The taxing expenses this winter. If roads don't get plowed and other things get done it will be because of the lack of funds due to holding up the protested taxes.

The village, the township fund, the road and bridge fund and the rural fire district are the heavy sufferers from the 1946 tax objections. Nearly all of the money due from the second installment collections is being withheld and placed in the reserve fund for tax protests.

A check for $8,370 of protested tax money was turned over to the county collector last week by the Palatine township collector. This amount of cash from a relatively small community represents a lot of services that the taxing bodies of the township might have rendered to the people of their districts.

The schools escaped any serious withholding of funds; only $1,200 of school money was withheld from the Palatine high school district.

COOL WAVE

The cool spell of ten days or so ago gave a hint of what might be expected in the not far distant future. When the old thermometer dropped down to 44 on the morning of Sept. 15 some of the folks began to think that fall was really here and that a lot of late corn was due to be nipped.

CORN WEATHER

After a few days of that cool weather along comes those southwest winds and temperatures up in the 90's again. As one big corn farmer said, "Every day of that sort of weather was worth $200 to every corn grower."

That hot weather, while it didn't make much of a hit with a lot of people who don't like hot weather, was a great thing for the corn and the crop is coming along in fine shape and ripening fast.

The warm spell also ripened up a lot of late tomatoes that looked as though they might be doomed to stay green until frost killed the vines, and it also gave a new impetus to the late bean crop. Some bean vines have had the idea this year that they were overbearing and have kept right on blooming and producing beans all summer except when everything was at a standstill
during the August heat wave.

WORTH WHILE

Alderman Jerry Acree, who lives down on the south side where the katydids are thick, thinks that the sound of those little insects is worth while.

One evening after a rather long board meeting at which there was a lot of discussion and a lot of talk about this, that and the other thing Mr. Acree finally made a motion to adjourn.

"Now you can get back among the katydids," he remarked to the alderman. To which he replied heartily, "Be glad to get there and listen to something worth while."

Now just what did the alderman mean by that remark?
Well, the many and varied wisdoms of the last three hours or so worth while? Well, we've listened to a lot of the lengthy discussions that have taken place in that hall during the past many years and there have been times when we would be inclined to agree with the alderman that the song of the katydid would be a welcome variation.

NICE FISH

Saturday afternoon when we were wondering what would make a good Sunday dinner during the September heat wave, along came Julius Drexler, who with Mrs. Drexler had just returned from Pine River, Minn., where they had spent a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Hoffman who own Hunters Bay Lodge on Woman lake up in that country.

Julius hands us a long package. "What's that?" we want to know.
"Compliments of Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Hoffman," says Julius, and there was a fine big fish fresh from the northland—the question of Sunday dinner was solved. Then Julius hands us a bag of nice peaches from his place and there was the dessert for that dinner.

This seems to be a good peach

THE NELSON—Flexibility is as important to a house

In the design of The Nelson,
the architect has achieved

that the plan may be adapted of different needs and tastes.

First, it is a small house that looks much larger than it is because the garage is turned end-ways and a grand porch placed in front of it. It may be a two bedroom, a three bedroom or a four bedroom house. It may have the conventionally sized living room shown in the floor plan here, or, by leaving out the partition between living room and front

Weekly recipe

Serving hot bran muffins with your summer time buffet, makes the meal a special event. I'm sure it will ease your mind for simple menu planning. Let these muffins be the high light of any meal.

Bran Muffins

1/4 cup butter.
1 egg.
1/4 cup sugar.
1/2 cup bananas, mashed.
1 1/2 cups flour.
1 cup bran flakes.
1 tsp. salt.
2 tsp. baking powder.
1/2 tsp. soda.
Method: Cream butter, add sugar, add well beaten egg. Add the mashed bananas. Sift the salt, baking powder and flour together and add bran. Mix with first mixture. Dissolve the soda in the water and fold into all.
Bake 400 degrees for 20 minutes. Yield: 12 muffins.

It Happened Here

Little E. of pre-kindergarten age, plays with children who boast their claims of having something she hasn't; one has a baby sister whom they all adore and one has a brother, old enough to be called "big brother." E. is a little worried over these boasts so her mother asked, "Which would you rather have a baby sister or a big brother?" "I want twins," said E. without a moment's hesitation. Then there was the little kindergarten who had the misfortune to slip off his shoe and asked for help to get it on again. "Can't you do it yourself?"
asked the teacher. "Not without a Slipperpoo," said the child.
"Goodness me!" said a mother standing near, "I haven't heard that word in ages—slipperpoo!"
As far as we are concerned, it's a new born word and goes right into our dictionary. We may as well continue the children's hour with another story. Uncle and a very small niece were sitting on the front porch steps on a very warm evening; the insect chorus

LIKE PAPER

Our subscription to the Arlington Heights Herald has expired. I am enclosing a check and would like to have our subscription renewed. You may not realize just how much your paper means to us — and it is usually read from cover to covrival.

We hope the weather in your area has been a little cooler these last weeks — understand it has been extremely hot during the summer. We, in San Diego have been very fortunate and as the natives say, have enjoyed the "Heaven on Earth climate" these past three years.

THANK YOU

This letter is just to tell you that the Cook County Herald is regularly received here and filed away to be bound as soon as enough issues arrive.

It is a pleasure to look your paper over. The clear print, the judicious and well exhibited headings and the obviously good editorial work combine to make an impressive paper of the Herald.

I am glad there is now a permanent file being accumulated here; the Herald is a fine addition to the best collection of Illinois

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by Leland Ellis Truxell

How unfortunate is the man whose wife tries to think for him, to plan all of his evenings, continually pry into his affairs at the office, constantly offering advice about things she does not understand and making fun of him because he has ideas about his office work which run counter to her own.

Tom was such a man. Graduate from a university, highly intelligent, his success seemed assured.
In fact, it was his unusual success in business that first drew Paula to him. She meant to help him to even greater heights. But after two years of married life, his career seemed finished. Where before he had gotten numerous promotions and raises, he now got smaller wages, less important positions.

Paula did not realize that it was her nagging, ridicule and domineering that was breaking Tom down, until it was almost too late.

But suddenly Tom began to do better. Paula was delighted, until she discovered that he was going with one of the girls at the office. This girl inspired him by her confidence in him, by faith in his ability.

Paula loved Tom, and wanted him back. And she told a friend who lives on my route about it.
"You must convince Tom that you, too, have faith in him," her friend told her. "Let him be the boss. Ask his advice instead of giving so much of your own. Let him know that you trust and depend on him."

Paula, desperate, took her friend's advice. And Tom's early love for Paula proved strong enough to pull him back.

You can not win people's confidence by making them feel inferior. You can not build people by destroying their self confidence. You can not think for a child, husband or wife, and expect them to love you for it. You can help only by letting them know how much confidence you have in them.

Paula's friend deserves a medal for saving a man's career and self respect, as well as a marriage that almost broke up because "The hand that rocks the cradle" sought to "rule the world" as well. A wise and tactful woman can do almost that, just as a wise and tactful husband can rule his household without too much trouble. But it can not be done by belittling others, or trying to make their lives over along designs of one's own.

Expandable house a good idea and practical

An authority on housing recently wise-cracked that what the industry needed even more than an expandable house that might grow with expanding family needs was one that might not only grow but that could later snap back like an elastic band when the children grew up and left home to establish families of their own. Perhaps this is demanding too much of our harassed architects but it is certainly true as much flexibility as possible should be designed into our homes, particularly into our small homes.

In the Nelson the architect has achieved the utmost in flexibility. The plan will adapt itself naturally to fit the various needs of families of different sizes, needs, budgets and tastes.

To begin with it is a small, compact house. It looks much larger than it is because the garage is attached sideways and a delightful porch, twenty feet long, runs its entire length. The house may have two, three or four bedrooms. It may start off modestly as a two-bedroom house and then later two more rooms and a second bath may be added upstairs.

The Nelson may be built with the conventionally sized living room shown here. Or if a truly luxurious living room is desired the partition between the living room and the downstairs front bedroom might be eliminated and an oversized room obtained, twenty-two feet long by sixteen feet wide. The smaller downstairs bedroom might be converted to a dining room, study, sewing room or den. In such case all sleeping rooms would be confined to the second floor.

The extreme flexibility of the Nelson is illustrated by following a family through its several normal stages. A young married couple with two young children, building on a tight budget, could get along for some years with the upstairs unfinished. At this stage they have a comfortable, four-room bungalow. As the children grow older and need separate rooms the upstairs is finished, making the home a four-bedroom house. Then the children marry and leave home. Mother and Dad want just their own bedroom and an occasional guest room. The sleeping space on the 2nd floor is now sufficient so one of the downstairs bedrooms is thrown into the living room and the other becomes a dining room. So far as actual cubic space is concerned our house hasn't changed but its room arrangement has altered to follow changing family needs. Perhaps no family will make all the various changes possible but it is comforting to know that its house plan is flexible enough to change with changing family needs.

The working drawings and specifications of the Nelson, drawn by one of the country's outstanding small house archi-

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: My son was killed in the Pacific theater of war and his body is buried in a military cemetery. Recently I was approached by a man who says he is a representative of a firm which takes care of the graves of American War dead and wants me to pay a small amount of money if I wish his firm to take care of my son's grave. Should I make the payment?

Answer: No. The federal government maintains perpetual care of American cemeteries. Recently racketeers have prevailed upon the relatives of war dead to make such payments for care never given to the graves. Do not pay this man and report all information about him to police authorities.

Question: While in service my foot was badly injured and it is very painful if I wear regular shoes; so I had to wear a slipper on the foot because the specially built shoes are so expensive. Could I possibly get a pair of these fitted shoes from the government?

Answer: Yes, the federal government now provides orthopedic shoes for veterans with service-connected foot disabilities. Information on how to apply for these special shoes can be obtained from your Veterans Administration representative.

Question: My son was killed in service and so was the son of my next-door neighbor. She has received a form to designate her preference concerning his burial place. But I have not received such a form. Her son was not killed in the same area as mine, but they both were in the same branch of the service. Why haven't I received such a form and will I get one?

Answer: Because of the large number of such cases, the armed forces have not been able to send out all such forms at yet. You will receive one, although it may require a longer time because of the large volume of such work now being done by armed service authorities.

Libertyville to take own census

The first complete census in Libertyville since that of the federal government in 1940, will be started this week. It is being undertaken by Libertyville Girl Scouts and eighth grade pupils of the public schools. It will require weeks to finish but when done it will be complete. Mrs. John Littler will supervise the Scouts.

New Baxter plant at Morton Grove to cost $1,250,000

Baxter Laboratories in Morton Grove, now nearing completion, will cost more than $1,250,000 it was learned last week. This includes the ground. Original plans called for a building to cost $850,000.

The structure is of one story, with a total floor area of 142,000 square feet. It is completely air conditioned.

Lesson in English

by W. L. GORDON
Words Often Misused

Elicit means to draw out or forth, as to elicit truth by discussion. Illicit means improper, or illegal, as illicit trade. One may say, "I bought the paper at Smith's the stationer's," or, "at Smith's, the stationer's."

Do not say, "He was so careless that he nearly fell in the lake." Say, "He was so careless that he nearly fell into the lake." Commendous and convenient are sometimes interchangeable, but a nice distinction is to use commendous to imply expense, convenient to express suitability. "The hall is commendous (spacious) and convenient (for the members)."

Do not say, "Here is the target that I shot at." "Here is the target at which I shot" is preferable. Do not confuse the adjective confident (full of assurance) with the noun confidant (one to whom secrets are confided). Words Often Mispronounced Amenity. Pronounce the e as in men. Amenable. Pronounce the e as in mean.

Maniac. Pronounce ma-ni-ak, first a as in may, i as in it, second a as in ah, accent last syllable.

Discern. Pronounce last syllable turn. Rapiet. Pronounce ra-pi-et, a as in ray, i as in pit, accent first syllable.

Theater. Accent first syllable, and not the second as so often heard.

Words Often Misspelled

Chloroform; observe the chl. Peritonitis; three i's. Obsequies; observe the five vowels. Fahrenheit; observe the first h. Lieu (place; stead); pronounce lu, u as in use. Gauge, or gage (to measure).

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Legacy; something left by will; a bequest. "He that visits the sick in hopes of a legacy, is no better than a raven that watches a weak sheep only to peck out its eyes." —Seneca.

Granivorous; feeding on seeds or grain. (Accent second syllable). "Some animals are granivorous." Incurruptible; incapable of being bribed or morally corrupted. "He was a man of honor, and incurruptible."

Cursory; characterized by "Events far too important to be treated in a cursory manner." —Hallam.

Veritable; agreeable to truth or to fact; actual; real; genuine; as, "the veritable Deity."

Avocation; a casual or subordinate occupation. "During the evenings he types manuscripts as an avocation."

"I WONDER WHO'S KISSING HER NOW"

DO YOU KNOW—

That the tailor-bird—a small Asiatic thrush or warbler—gets its name from the way it builds its nest. Two or three leaves are stitched together with silk, wool or vegetable fibre and within the space so formed, the nest proper is constructed of cotton, grass and hair.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

1. If riding in someone else's car and he stops for refreshments, whose place is it to pay the bill?

2. Is it obligatory to make calls on the bride and bridegroom?

3. How close to the edge of the dining table should the silverware be placed?

4. When calling on a friend at a hotel or in an apartment, does one go directly to the room?

5. If a friend has a book one wishes to read, is it all right to ask outright to borrow it?

6. Is it correct to use both hands when eating corn on the cob?

7. If one is a college freshman and is not pledged to any fraternity, should he tell any member he happens to know that he would like to belong to a fraternity?

8. When a man is making a business call, isn't it all right for him to place his hat and brief case on the desk of the man with whom he is talking?

9. Are hats worn at a summer home wedding?

10. Where should a couple stop dancing when they wish to leave the floor during a dance?

11. Should a young woman rise while acknowledging an introduction to an elderly man?

12. What entertainments are usually provided for the afternoons of a house party?

Answers

1. If the host suggests stopping, he more than likely expects to pay. However, the proper thing for the guest to do is to offer to pay (and with sincerity), or at least to suggest "Dutch treat."

2. Yes; all those who received invitations to the wedding should call on the bride in her new home, even if they haven't attended the wedding.

3. The ends of the handles should be placed about one inch from the edge of the table.

4. This is considered very bad taste and thoughtless. One should never go to the friend's room without first telephoning. This may be done either from one's home

Civil service examinations

Radio Engineer positions in the Federal Communications Commission in Washington, D. C., and throughout the United States, its territories and possessions, will be filled from an examination announced today by U. S. Civil Service Commission. Salaries are $4,149, $4,902, and $5,905 a year.

No written test is required of competitors for these positions. To qualify, they must (a) have successfully completed a college curriculum leading to a bachelor's degree in electrical, radio or communication engineering or in physics; (b) have had 4 years of technical engineering experience; or (c) have had a time-equivalent combination of such education and experience. In addition they must have had from two to four years of professional radio engineering experience. Persons appointed to most positions must be able to drive an automobile and must possess either a first-class radio-telegraph operator's license or the ability to transmit and receive plain text in the International Morse Code at the rate of 25 words per minute.

Additional information and application forms may be secured from the Commission's Local secretary, Mr. Francis S. Hall, located at Arlington Heights, from most first- and second-class post offices, from Civil Service regional offices, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Applications must be received in the Commission's Washington office not later than October 14, 1947.

LAW on the FARM

Community Sales — The law of Illinois requires the licensing and regulation of community sales. Similar laws have been enacted in several other states during the past few years. The purpose of the law is to prevent the spread of contagious animal disease and to insure prompt and full payment of sellers of livestock by the community sales operator.

Community sale is defined as "any sale or exchange of livestock or other personal property held by any person at an established place of business or premises where the livestock or per-

Livestock in danger of plant poisoning

Livestock is in great danger of plant poisoning, the Illinois State Veterinary Medical Association, warned today. "Illinois dry, hot summer has caused short, brown pasturage and when pasturage is scant, animals are tempted to eat anything green," the Association said. As an example, it named the leaves of the wild black cherry.

"Ordinary livestock do not eat cherry leaves," the Association said. "The only sure precaution is to cut out all the trees before the stock get a chance at them, but every bit must be removed. Cows, especially, like the wilted leaves and will eat enough to become fatally poisoned."

"Sudan grass can be dangerous in certain soil and weather conditions. If we should get early hard frosts there will be danger of poisoning from corn, sorghum, acorns and thornapples. Most of such poisoning is from Prussic acid, which works so fast that the only way to check it is to inject a counteracting substance directly into the animal's bloodstream."

"Prevention and treatment of plant poisoning call for constant vigilance and correct care, especially during the coming season of drying pastures."

Chapter 121 1/2, Sections 208-219. Further information about the operation of this law may be procured from the State Department of Agriculture, Springfield.

Abe Sugar attends Peoria convention to get inside dope on feed situation

Abe Sugar of the Northwestern Flour and Feed Co., member of the Illinois Feed association, will hear some of the nation's outstanding talent discuss the food and feed business September 29 and 30, Pere Marquette Hotel, Peoria. World demands on feed and foodstuffs have influenced an abnormal market and price situation.

"NO ONE can tell what may happen in the future, but we do expect to get some good pointers from men who know," was the comment of Mr. Sugar who further stated, "We in the feed business are striving to continue improving our service to agriculture, and we must keep abreast of this fast parade of progress in the field of nutrition and merchandising."

THE ILLINOIS Feed association was organized at the University of Illinois, Urbana, four years ago and has a membership representing over 95% of the feed industry in the state. Aside from serving its membership, feed dealers, feed mixers and feed manufacturers, it has a strong program designed for developing a greater service to agriculture through the feed dealers.

Kids make money on new playground at Lake Zurich

A businessman is born, not made. To support the point, the cases of Stevie Conrad and Wade Sebby, two up-and-coming Lake Zurich youngsters is offered. The Lake Zurich Lions, intent on adding to the playground equipment in Lions park, purchased a Miracle Whirl—one of those circular businesses suspended from a pole, which the kids push around and around at a dizzy pace.

The Lions set it up the other day, and some time after that, Stevie and Wade showed up with eleven cents which they had acquired in some mysterious manner. Investigation disclosed that they had introduced the Miracle Whirl in proper fashion by charging their playmates a penny each for riding on it.

Sugar factories seek more help in piling beets

In a quest to keep abreast of speedier sugar beet harvest, due to increased use of machine harvester, midwestern beet sugar companies this fall are handling a comprehensive factory storage-pile test program aimed at earlier and faster beet deliveries for the farmer.

According to Glenn R. Larke, educational secretary of the Farmers and Manufacturers Beet Sugar Ass'n, three companies and Michigan State college will work on the program. Powerful ventilating fans will blow cool night air through ducts under huge piles of beets at the factory, beginning when piling starts and continuing until beet temperatures are brought down within safe limits for prolonged storage.

In this way, Larke states, it may be possible to begin stockpiling in early fall warm weather, and hold the beets for later processing. Storage periods of up to six weeks are envisioned.

The test program if successful, also could eliminate bottlenecks and shutdowns in beet receipts in mid-harvest due to unseasonably warm weather. Several delays, especially irritating to farmers now that they are equipped with power machinery for speedier beet harvest, occurred last year.

Farmers are cautioned, however, that to be successful any such piling program will require their cooperation in delivering clean, unfrosted and properly topped beets.

Arlington Heights 'Ag' class visits experiment station

Agriculture students of the Arlington Heights Township High School were privileged to hear and see results of experiments carried on by the University of Illinois experiment station at Des Plaines recently. Charles Arnold, superintendent of the local station, gave results of tests on varieties, fertilizers, and insecticides.

Truck farmers have been taking advantage of this information for some time, but it was the first trip for most of the boys.

While waiting for the farm shop in the new high school addition to be completed, the boys spent some time putting up the cable around the athletic field. It was first hand practical experience.

J. D. Bryson, vocational agriculture teacher, states that the new F. F. A. is being organized and a news note written by the official student reporter will appear next week. Much interest is being shown by local "Future Farmers," and an active chapter should result.

Electric Controls Put Many Farm Choring Jobs On Automatic Basis

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

There was a time when self-control was the only type of control to be found on most farms, and often farmers found it hard to keep a tight rein on that when the wind died down and the pump handle broke.

AUTOMATIC CONTROLS — watch over the farmer's water pressure system.

On today's modern, electrified farms, automatic controls perform a multitude of chores, and they never lose their temper. They are the "mechanical watch dogs" which operate day and night to hold temperatures—hot or cold—at desired levels, protect motors, keep water flowing, turn poultry lights on and off at stated intervals, guard against frozen stock tanks and water pipes, and perform many other amazing jobs automatically.

Automatic controls are used in conjunction with such electrically operated farm equipment as ensilage cutters, corn shellers, elevators, feed grinders, milk coolers, grain driers, hay hoists, mow hay curing equipment, milking machines, ventilation equipment, refrigeration units, water systems and irrigation pumps.

They act in several ways to save the farmer time and money. Proper controls will increase the efficient operation of his equipment and enable him to put many of his choring jobs on an automatic basis. Motors can be started by remote control switches located at some distance from the equipment, as well as by switches mounted adjacent to the machine. Concern over the continuous operation of such equipment as hay curing fans, pressure and time switches, pumps, thermostats and compressors is considerably lessened when a magnetic "line starter" is standing by to re-start all necessary motors immediately after the cause of temporary interruptions has been corrected.

In cases where automatic re-starting of motors is hazardous, controls which provide for under-voltage protection, see that this does not happen. This feature prevents possible injury to workmen if a saw, for example, starts up without warning after it has been stopped for some reason. Controls, with built-in overload protection, guard motors against damage caused by handling loads larger than those for which they are designed.

In the home, controls lend equally valuable assistance to the farm wife. They eliminate the drudgery of pumping water by hand and bring to the entire family the comfort of automatic heating. Thermostatic devices control the electricity so that she can operate her range, roaster and water heater efficiently and economically. They keep her refrigerator and freezer functioning at the proper temperature.

It would be practically impossible on electrified farms to enjoy many of the advantages which electrical equipment can provide without the tireless service rendered by automatic controls.

Cattle owners and veterinarians realize that it is not the number of herds tested nor the number of calves vaccinated that determines the success of a brucellosis control and eradication program.

Dean Robert Graham of the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine, states that the number of herds vaccinated is the number of herds free of brucellosis.

Blood testing is a proved method of diagnosis, and experience has demonstrated clearly that all infected animals can be detected by this method. Like good management and calfhood vaccination, testing is a means of obtaining clean herds. However, one test is not enough to pick out all reacting animals. Repeated tests at 30-day intervals are necessary in infected herds, since exposed animals may fail to show any reaction for several days or even weeks after infection sets in.

According to Dean Graham, it is usually possible to clean up most herds by testing and management before the protection afforded by calfhood vaccination becomes effective. Vaccination is regarded as a valuable aid in brucellosis-infected herds or in localities where the disease is present on adjoining farms. However, it is not a substitute for good management or a solution to the problem of brucellosis control.

Since the disease is most commonly introduced in healthy herds through purchase of infected animals, owners of clean herds can, in the main, avoid brucellosis by purchasing animals only from accredited herds.

Over a period of years it has been demonstrated that testing and elimination of reactors, along with the use of good management methods, have kept many herds free from brucellosis. Vaccination of calves four to eight months of age is also a recognized aid in providing protection against this disease. However, protection induced by vaccination may decrease, and vac-

Dairyman lists merits of spring pasture

Rye seeded in early fall for spring dairy pastures has several advantages for the dairymen, points out C. S. Rhode, extension dairyman, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. Early spring pastures frequently increase milk yields from 10 to 15 per cent; the cost of grain is cut in half; no hay or silage is needed; less time is required for feeding and care of the stock, and the herd is kept in better health. The rye should be seeded at the rate of 2 bushels an acre. Either Balbo or common rye gives good results. Balbo normally makes a somewhat earlier and heavier growth but may not be quite so winter-hardy as common rye.

On productive soil, one acre of rye pasture will usually take care of two cows for about 3 weeks. Increased production and feed saved make the pasture worth $15 to $30 an acre.

YOUR DENTAL I Q

Question: What is the cause of Tranch Mouth and can it be cured?

Answer: Formerly, Trench Mouth (Vincent's Infection) was thought to have been caused by two germs living together for their mutual advantage. The names of these organisms are fusiform bacillus (fus-sif-orm bas-ill-us) and Vincent's spirochete (Vin-sents spir-o-ke-t). Recently researchers have come to believe that perhaps two additional micro-organisms are concerned with the disease. Trench Mouth is an infectious disease affecting chiefly the gums, tho it may involve the lips, tongue and lining of the mouth. Young adults are most susceptible to this infection and it may occur in children. The acute type of Trench Mouth cannot be confused with any other mouth disease as there is a marked redness and sloughing of the gum tissues, pain, characteristic bad breath, temperature and prostration. Sub-acute or chronic cases of Trench Mouth are less easily recognized because the symptoms are less marked. However, in chronic cases as in acute cases, the gums will be tender and sore when the teeth are brushed. Trench mouth can be cured providing the patient cooperates effectively with the dentist in its treatment.

Lutheran Hour in 15th year

The premier radio opening of the 15th season of the International Lutheran Hour, oldest broadcast of its kind on the air, will be held next Sunday, September 28, as part of the third Chicago-Lutheran Hour rally. The service, for which 20,000 free seats will be available, will be held in the Chicago stadium, 1800 West Madison street, and will begin at 2:45 p. m. The Rev. Dr. Walter A. Maier, the regular Lutheran Hour preacher, will deliver the sermon using a timely text "Christ, not Communism." In his address he will give first-hand information on conditions as he found them in Germany. The Hon. Homer E. Capehart, United States senator from Indiana, will also speak.

In addition to hymn singing to the accompaniment of the mighty stadium organ, special music will be provided by a large mass chorus, teacher John G. Rieck's Lutheran Children's chorus, and the Treblettes. One of the outstanding events will be the "Parade of the Nations," a colorful pageant, in which groups of children will carry flags representing the eighty nations in which this radio crusade is heard.

Nature color film expert

at Elmhurst club October 6

Like the tail that wags the dog, John Nash Ott, Jr., Chicago banker, is learning that a hobby can be followed too successfully, as his film on "Time Lapse Photography" which he will present under the sponsorship of Elmhurst Garden club next October 6, at 8:00 o'clock, in the Hawthorne school, 145 Arthur st., Elmhurst, clearly shows.

After 20 years of painstaking effort, Mr. Ott has completed an hour and a half of color films, that are so startling in their beauty and charm that audiences sometimes forget they are seeing the life history of a plant that cuts many months into a few minutes, that in one case, reduces five years into a matter of a few minutes of actual film. Mr. Ott, third generation of a famous Chicago baking family, took up his hobby with the introduction of home motion picture cameras just 20 years ago. When color films appeared in 1929, his entire work had to be done over again, but by this time much of his period of experimentation and preparation was past.

HE HAD LEARNED that pictures must be taken every five minutes, that he needed a shutter arrangement to admit sunlight in order to give his plants their normal growth, but to close when the pictures were being taken so that the scenes would have a constant lighting effect; that it takes not one but several of his cameras to get the effects needed for his final film.

He had by this time, too, created the automatic timing devices which made his pictures possible; the clock which operated the shutters, turned on the flood lights, snapped the camera, watered the flowers, adjusted the height of the cameras as the plants grew, and a dozen other things.

Mr. Ott, the banker and photographer, had to become not only a horticulturist, but a carpenter, electrician, musical conductor and inventor. He has built a studio in his basement with a setup that is not equalled in Hollywood or any scientific photographic laboratory.

HIS FILM is in several sections, the first showing some of his apparatus and methods of taking pictures that speed up action from 10,000 to 50,000 times. The next phase is the "Flowers in Action" section which shows the thrust of the seedling from the ground and the growth until shooting stars actually burst into bloom before your eyes in explosive beauty, and ferns unfold in a lazy graceful sweep of lacy foliage.

"Neighborhood children are my best critics," said Mr. Otto, referring to the third sequence in the film. "They love the 'Plant Oddities,' the Venus fly-trap actually trapping and devouring insects, and the leaf of the sundew snaring an ant and then digesting it. They think that's blood and thunder stuff, a real thriller."

Garden enthusiasts find great practical value in the sequence which shows plant chemicals and their effects in various types of weeds and grasses. But everyone thrills to the climax when Mr. Otto presents a ballet of primroses dancing to a Strauss waltz.

"THE BALLET was accomplished by building special flower pots on wheels and equipping each with an electric heating element and also an automatic watering device," Mr. Ott reveals. "When the heat was turned on, the leaves would wilt down, and when watered, would revive again, thus giving the up and down motion. By controlling the light from one side and then another and actually turning the flower pots slightly, the motion of the leaves from side to side was obtained."

"Thus by controlling the light, temperature and moisture, the growth and movement of the flowers were synchronized with the rhythm of the Strauss waltz. This was done automatically by special time control equipment that I have developed over the past 20 years."

Mr. Ott is still a young man under 40, having entered the last war as an able seaman and emerged as a lieutenant (j. g.) in the navy. He is a family man with a wife and six children, and is active in civic and welfare societies, both in Chicago and Winnetka.

Would-be shoplifter has novel system

A woman with a unique method of shoplifting merchandise invaded the Huszagh clothing store at 108 North Hough street last week, Barrington.

The woman, claiming to be Dr. B. P. Graber's nurse, entered the store and ordered a considerable quantity of merchandise, supposed for the destitute children of Europe. The clothing prices totalled, figured $144.30 and were to be charged to Dr. Graber's account.

Selections of the finest clothing were made, including ties priced at $1.50, sweaters marked $10, $4.50 pairs of pajamas, $1.35 "T" shirts, fancy sport shirts, men's and boys' underwear, and many other items.

Mrs. Huszagh assembled the clothing and placed it in a box. She wasn't suspicious at the woman's story sounded perfectly logical until the shoplifter ordered an expensive wallet. Thinking over the situation as she watched the lady sauntering out of the store with $144.30 worth of merchandise, she decided to check more carefully.

Just as the woman was getting into her car, which Mrs. Huszagh believed to be a 12 cylinder Cadillac or Packard, the proprietor stopped her, saying that it would be better if a check be made with Dr. Graber first. The woman hesitated and argued a bit, but acceded eventually to the proprietor's wishes, and then drove away.

Nothing has been heard from her since.
